Pursuant to Minnesota Rule 7877.0140, any license badge issued by the Minnesota Racing Commission is considered part of a temporary license pending completion of an investigation of qualifications and fitness. This temporary status may last for up to 60 days after the temporary license is granted. Any individual whose license is denied or who withdraws an application for a Class C license shall immediately surrender the individual's badge to the Commission.

NOTICE OF INTENDED USE OF DATA

Pursuant to Minn. Stat. §13.04, subd. 2 you are hereby informed that the information requested on this application will be used by the Minnesota Racing Commission (MRC) to determine your qualifications as a class C licensee, and to assist the MRC in conducting a background investigation of you. You have the right to refuse to supply the information requested. However, if you refuse to supply this information, the MRC may not be able to determine your qualifications and, as a consequence, may refuse to issue a license. If you supply the information requested, the MRC will be able to process your application promptly.

Upon receiving a class C license, all application information provided by you, except your social security number, including the fingerprint identification card, will become public data. Prior to receiving a license, the application information - with the exception of your name and designated address, which are public - is considered private data on individuals and will be available only to the following: Members, employees and agents of the MRC whose work assignment requires that they have access to the information; the Bureau of Criminal Apprehension, Alcohol and Gambling Enforcement Division and private background verification companies; the Minnesota Attorney General; the Minnesota Commissioners of Administration, Finance and Revenue; the Minnesota Legislative Auditor; national and international racing organizations and agencies; parties to judicial proceedings pursuant to court order; other individuals or agencies that may be specifically authorized by state statute or federal law to have access to such information; individuals and agencies for which law or legal order authorizes a new use or sharing of the information after this Notice was given.

DISCLOSURE OF SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER

You are required to provide your social security number on this class C license application. It will be used for identification purposes in administering the tax laws of Minnesota. Authorization for requiring your social security number is found at 42 U.S.C.§ 405 (c) (I). It is the Minnesota Racing Commission's intent to also use your social security number for identification purposes other than those relating to tax collection. You have the right to object to this additional use of your social security number. Should you wish to object to such additional uses you must do so at the time of filing this application.
