

ERTK Quiz

NAME: _____ DATE: _____

Employee ID#: _____

- T/F 1. All chemicals should be considered hazardous.
- T/F 2. As an employee, you have the responsibility to ask questions when you are unsure about hazardous chemicals.
- T/F 3. Always assume an unlabeled container is harmless.
- T/F 4. If a chemical is flammable, it is also a health hazard.
5. Material Safety Data Sheets are located at _____.
- T/F 6. MSDS's can only be reviewed during breaks.
- T/F 7. Always wear safety goggles when mixing or pouring chemicals.
- T/F 8. A # 3 in the blue section of the label means that it is a serious health hazard.
- T/F 9. Corrosives can burn eyes or skin.
- T/F 10. Labels which are difficult to read should be reported to your supervisor and replaced.
11. Where can you find specific information on chemicals (such as ingredients, characteristics, acute and chronic symptoms).
- A. Material Safety Data Sheet (MSDS)
 - B. The Random House dictionary (TRHD)
 - C. Occupational Safety and Health Association (OSHA)
 - D. American National Standard Institute (ANSI)