Minnesota Metrology Laboratory

We have completed our move, installed our new equipment,
and we are still NVLAP accredited*

Owned and operated by the State of Minnesota, the Minnesota Metrology Laboratory traces its history to 1885, when the Minnesota Legislature created the State Scale Department to measure wheat for the Railroad and Warehouse Commission. The Lab is now part of the Weights and Measures Division of the Minnesota Department of Commerce.

The Minnesota Metrology Laboratory recently moved to new facilities at:

14305 Southcross Drive W.
