

RGU Designations Based on Project Type (From the EQB Rules)

For projects listed in overlapping areas, the RGU could be either governmental unit. In these cases, the RGU is usually determined by selecting the government unit with the most authority to approve/deny a project or with the most expertise to perform environmental review.

* There are various RGUs possible for projects involving nuclear fuels and nuclear waste. (It depends upon the project type.)