

STATE of MINNESOTA

Proclamation

- WHEREAS: A dynamic, thriving economy is critical to the future of Minnesota and its citizens; and
- WHEREAS: The launch of new business enterprises and the development of innovative products and services are key catalysts in the creation of a thriving economy and the expansion of employment opportunities for workers of every age; and
- WHEREAS: Every community and region of Minnesota is blessed with individuals and organizations leading the way in business expansion, creating more and better jobs; and
- WHEREAS: Their energy, imagination, and entrepreneurial risk-taking continue to enhance and strengthen the economic well-being of our citizens and the entire state; and
- WHEREAS: Today, we recognize individuals and organizations—many Finance and Commerce Progress Minnesota 2014 honorees—and acknowledge their outstanding contributions to Minnesota's economic progress and their ability to compete successfully in the global marketplace.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MARK DAYTON, Governor of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim April 10, 2014, as:

PROGRESS MINNESOTA DAY

in the state of Minnesota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the state of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this 3rd day of March.

GOVERNOR

SECRETARY OF STATE
