

STATE of MINNESOTA

Proclamation

- WHEREAS: In 1962, one of the most recognized and enduring rock bands of all time, the Rolling Stones was started in London by schoolmates Mick Jagger and Keith Richards; and
- WHEREAS: The Rolling Stones have spent decades traveling the globe – playing hundreds of sold out shows before millions of fans; and
- WHEREAS: The Rolling Stones still claim the status, “The World’s Greatest Rock n Roll Band” more than 50 years later; and
- WHEREAS: The Rolling Stones remain among the most beloved musical acts of all time with 41 “Top 40 Hits”, 23 “Top Ten Hits”, and 8 Billboard “Number One Hits” in the United States; and
- WHEREAS: The Rolling Stones has played in Minnesota ten times dating back to 1964, and will play an eleventh concert in Minnesota at TCF Bank Stadium – having performed in Excelsior, Bloomington, Minneapolis, and Saint Paul; and
- WHEREAS: We come together on Wednesday, June 3, 2015, to honor The Rolling Stones, one of the most influential and inspiring rock bands in history.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MARK DAYTON, Governor of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Wednesday, June 3, 2015, as:

THE ROLLING STONES DAY

in the State of Minnesota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this 2nd day of June.
