

To the Veterans of Foreign Wars-Minnesota:

On behalf of Urban Samurai Productions, I would like to invite your organization to be a part of a very important Twin Cities event. In September of this year, our company will be producing a poignant, timely play depicting the struggles of an American soldier's family.

Homeland Prayer by Jeff Carter

The carnage of a roadside bomb sends shockwaves through a middle-American family as Danny, beloved son, brother, and husband returns from Iraq critically wounded & unresponsive. As Danny clings to life the family grapples with anguish and uncertainty, while trying to maintain some semblance of normalcy in their day-to-day lives. Hardest hit is the father Darden, a Vietnam Vet, conflicted with pride for his country and grief for his son.

I am writing today to invite all the VFW of Minnesota to join us as a participant and honored guest of this production. I have included a list of ways to share in this show, and I encourage you to join us in whatever way you wish.

Whether it is as an audience member, Partner, or Sponsor, we thank you for your active interest in this piece of theatre that will help generate awareness and a dialogue within the community about the vital importance of reaching out to veterans and their families.

Thank you so much for your time. Please feel free to contact me at any time with questions or comments: (952) 381-3423 or jaldridge@sabesjcc.org

Sincerely,
Jennifer Aldridge
