

On September 25, 2009
Urban Samurai Productions will celebrate the opening of its latest season with the powerful production
Homeland Prayer by Jeff Carter.

We invite your organizations to join us as an Honored Guest.
Other levels of participation (Partner and Sponsor) are available if you so choose.

Honored Guest

As an Honored Guest, your organization will receive a voucher for Two (2) free tickets to the opening night performance of Homeland Prayer on October 2, 2009 at 7:30pm at the Sabes Jewish Community Center in St Louis Park.

Partner

Are you willing to do any of the following:

- Place an announcement for the event on your website
- Send out an informational email to your members
- Put the dates on your online calendar
- Provide your mailing list to Urban Samurai for a one-time mailing of their professionally designed promotional materials
- Put postcards and/or posters of the event at your office (and perhaps organizations you work with)

In return, we would be happy to provide you with the following:

- A table for your organizations' informational materials, sign-ups, and other publicity materials on the night of the event. This is a great way to get community members informed about your group and spark local interest!
- Recognize your organization in the event's program, website, and (possible) advertisements.
- A link to your organization's webpage from Urban Samurai's site.
- Two (2) complimentary tickets to opening night for your group and a special group rate for any other members that would like to attend.
- Public recognition and thanks for your contribution to the success of the show and its causes.

Sponsor

If you are interested in partnering AND contributing a monetary donation, your organization will receive additional benefits in accordance with the following sponsorship levels:

Please note that these are added to the partnership benefits mentioned above*
