Minnesota Rules: Amendments and Additions

NOTICE: How to Follow State Agency Rulemaking in the State Register

The State Register is the official source, and only complete listing, for all state agency rulemaking in its various stages. State agencies are required to publish notice of their rulemaking action in the State Register. Published every Monday, the State Register makes it easy to follow and participate in the important rulemaking process. Approximately 80 state agencies have the authority to issue rules. Each agency is assigned specific Minnesota Rule chapter numbers. Every odd-numbered year the Minnesota Rules are published. Supplements are published to update this set of rules. Generally speaking, proposed and adopted exempt rules do not appear in this set because of their short-term nature, but are published in the State Register.

An agency must first solicit Comments on Planned Rules or Comments on Planned Rule Amendments from the public on the subject matter of a possible rulemaking proposal under active consideration within the agency (Minnesota Statutes §§ 14.101). It does this by publishing a notice in the State Register at least 60 days before publication of a notice to adopt or a notice of hearing, or within 60 days of the effective date of any new statutory grant of required rulemaking.

When rules are first drafted, state agencies publish them as Proposed Rules, along with a notice of hearing, or a notice of intent to adopt rules without a hearing in the case of noncontroversial rules. This notice asks for comment on the rules as proposed. Proposed emergency rules, and withdrawn proposed rules, are also published in the State Register. After proposed rules have gone through the comment period, and have been rewritten into their final form, they again appear in the State Register as Adopted Rules. These final adopted rules are not printed in their entirety, but only the changes made since their publication as Proposed Rules. To see the full rule, as adopted and in effect, a person simply needs two issues of the State Register, the issue the rule appeared in as proposed, and later as adopted.

The State Register features partial and cumulative listings of rules in this section on the following schedule: issues #1-26 inclusive (issue #26 cumulative for issues #1-26); issues #27-52 inclusive (issue #52, cumulative for issues #27-52 or #53 in some years). A subject matter index is updated weekly and is available upon request from the editor. For copies or subscriptions to the State Register, contact the editor at 651-201-3204 or email at sean.plemmons@state.mn.us

Expedited Emergency Rules

Provisions exist for the Commissioners of some state agencies to adopt expedited emergency rules when conditions exist that do not allow the Commissioner to comply with the requirements for emergency rules. The Commissioner must submit the rule to the attorney general for review and must publish a notice of adoption that includes a copy of the rule and the emergency conditions. Expedited emergency rules are effective upon publication in the State Register, and may be effective up to seven days before publication under certain emergency conditions.

Expedited emergency rules are effective for the period stated or up to 18 months. Specific Minnesota Statute citations accompanying these expedited emergency rules detail the agency's rulemaking authority.

KEY: Proposed Rules - Underlining indicates additions to existing rule language. ~~Strikeouts~~ indicate deletions from existing rule language. If a proposed rule is totally new, it is designated "all new material." Adopted Rules - Underlining indicates additions to proposed rule language. ~~Strikeout~~ indicates deletions from proposed rule language.

Department of Natural Resources

Adopted Expedited Emergency Game and Fish Rules: Spring Turkey Hunt, State Game Refuges, and Wildlife Management Areas

Notice is hereby given that the above entitled rules have been adopted through the process prescribed by Minnesota Statutes, section 84.027, subdivision 13(b). The statutory authority for the contents of these rules is Minnesota Statutes, section 84.027, subdivision 13(a)-(b); section 86A.06; 97A.091 subdivision 2; section 97A.045 subdivisions 3, 5, 6 and 9; section 97A.137 subdivision 1 and 2; section 97A.435 subdivision 1 and 2; section 97B.111; section 97B.605; section 97B.721; section 97B.723 and section 97B.731 subdivision 3.

The conditions that do not allow compliance with Minnesota Statutes, sections 97A.0451 to 97A.0459, are as follows: i) distribution of permits for access to major wildlife management units is subject to modification on an annual basis as the Department of Natural Resources refines the manner by which the season is conducted to provide high-quality hunting opportunities and assure equitable distribution of harvest, ii) turkey population and harvest data is gathered annually and analyzed in late summer, and iii) adjustments to permit area boundaries are based on annual and long-term population data as well as input from the public.

The St. Michaels Meadows Wildlife Management Area is an integral part of a wetland restoration project but cannot sustain firearms hunting due to its smaller size and proximity to a residential housing development.

Changes to the Carlos Avery Wildlife Management Unit Sanctuary improve opportunities for youth or disabled hunters who are participating in special hunts.

Changes to Cross Lake and Camp Ripley Game Refuges in Crow Wing and Morrison counties, respectively, provide additional hunting opportunity on refuges where there is a harvestable surplus of wild turkey.

The crow season is being amended to continue to meet the maximum federal crow season specified in Minnesota Statutes, section 97B.731, subdivision 3.

Exempt Rules

Exempt rules are excluded from the normal rulemaking procedures (Minnesota Statutes §§ 14.386 and 14.388). They are most often of two kinds. One kind is specifically exempted by the Legislature from rulemaking procedures, but approved for form by the Revisor of Statutes, reviewed for legality by the Office of Administrative Hearings, and then published in the State Register. These exempt rules are effective for two years only.

The second kind of exempt rule is one adopted where an agency for good cause finds that the rulemaking provisions of Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 14 are unnecessary, impracticable, or contrary to the public interest. This exemption can be used only where the rules:

(1) address a serious and immediate threat to the public health, safety, or welfare, or

(2) comply with a court order or a requirement in federal law in a manner that does not allow for compliance with Minnesota Statutes Sections 14.14-14.28, or

(3) incorporate specific changes set forth in applicable statutes when no interpretation of law is required, or

(4) make changes that do not alter the sense, meaning, or effect of the rules.

These exempt rules are also reviewed for form by the Revisor of Statutes, for legality by the Office of Administrative Hearings and then published in the State Register. In addition, the Office of Administrative Hearings must determine whether the agency has provided adequate justification for the use of this exemption. Rules adopted under clauses (1) or (2) above are effective for two years only. The Legislature may also exempt an agency from the normal rulemaking procedures and establish other procedural and substantive requirements unique to that exemption.

FINDINGS & STATEMENT OF SUPPORTING REASONS

Amending Minnesota Rules, parts 8001.0300, subpart 2; 8038.0100, subparts 4, 6, and 8; 8093.0200, subparts 1, 1a, and 2; 8130.6400, subparts 1 and 3; 8130.6600; 8130.8100, subpart 2; and 8160.0500, subpart 1.

FINDINGS

Article 24 of 2019 Minn. Laws, 1st Spec. Sess. ch. 6 updated the tax statutes to modernize language referencing persons with disabilities and married persons. However, chapters 8001-8175 of Minnesota Rules governing revenue, still use the outdated terminology that was updated in Minnesota Statutes by the legislature in 2019.

Specifically, Minnesota Rules, parts 8001.0300, 8038.0100, 8093.0200, and 8160.0500 need marriage references updated to reflect the updated terminology in Minnesota Statutes updated by the legislature in 2019. Also, Minnesota Rules, parts 8130.6400, 8130.6600, and 8130.8100 need references to disabled veterans updated to reflect the updated terminology in Minnesota Statutes update by the legislature in 2019.

The proposed amendments would update those references to bring terminology in the Minnesota Rules governing revenue in line with the updated terminology in Minnesota Statutes governing taxes.

STATEMENT OF SUPPORTING REASONS

An amendment must meet one of the criteria of Minnesota Statutes, section 14.388, to be adopted under good cause exemption procedures. The third clause, "to incorporate specific changes set forth in applicable statutes when no interpretation of law is required," applies in this instance. The fourth clause – "make[s] changes that do not alter the sense, meaning, or effect of a rule" – also applies.

8001.0300 RESIDENT AND DOMICILE DEFINED; CONSIDERATIONS.

[For text of subpart 1, see Minnesota Rules]

Subp. 2. Domicile; definition and presumptions. The term "domicile" means the bodily presence of an individual person in a place coupled with an intent to make such a place one's home. The domicile of any person is that place in which that person's habitation is fixed, without any present intentions of removal therefrom, and to which, whenever absent, that person intends to return.

A person who leaves home to go into another jurisdiction for temporary purposes only is not considered to have lost that person's domicile. But if a person moves to another jurisdiction with the intention of remaining there permanently or for an indefinite time as a home, that person has lost that person's domicile in this state. The presumption is that a person who leaves this state to accept a job assignment in a foreign nation has not lost that person's domicile in this state.

Except for a person covered by the provisions of the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act, United States Code, title 50 appendix, section 574, the presumption is that the place where a person's family is domiciled is that person's domicile. The domicile of a spouse is the same as the other spouse unless there is affirmative evidence to the contrary or unless the ~~husband and wife~~ spouses are legally separated or the marriage has been dissolved. When a person has made a home at any place with the intention of remaining there and the person's family neither lives there nor intends to do so, then that person has established a domicile separate from that person's family.

The domicile of a single person is that person's usual home. In a case of a minor child who is not emancipated, the domicile of the child's parents is the domicile of the child. The domicile of the parent who has legal custody of the child is the domicile of the child. A person who is a permanent resident alien in the United States may have a domicile in this state. The domicile of a member of the armed forces will be governed by the facts just prior to becoming a member of the armed forces unless the person takes the necessary steps to establish a new domicile.

The mere intention to acquire a new domicile, without the fact of physical removal, does not change the status of the taxpayer, nor does the fact of physical removal, without the intention to remain, change the person's status. The presumption is that one's domicile is the place where one lives. An individual can have only one domicile at any particular time. A domicile once shown to exist is presumed to continue until the contrary is shown. An absence of intention to abandon a domicile is equivalent to an intention to retain the existing one. No positive rule can be adopted with respect to the evidence necessary to prove an intention to change a domicile but such intention may be proved by acts and declarations, and of the two forms of evidence, acts must be given more weight than declarations. A person who is temporarily employed within this state does not acquire a domicile in this state if during that period the person is domiciled outside of this state.

8038.0100 INCOME TAX RETURNS FOR ~~HUSBAND AND WIFE~~ SPOUSES.

Subpart 1. [Repealed, 27 SR 1664]

Subp. 2. [Repealed, 27 SR 1664]

Subp. 3. [Repealed, 27 SR 1664]

Subp. 4. Community property. If both ~~husband and wife~~ spouses are residents of a community property state or nation, it is permissible for them to split their income and losses based on the law of their residence. Otherwise, it is not permissible for ~~a husband and wife~~ spouses to split their income and losses or to assign it to the other spouse unless it is required under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code.

Subp. 5. [Repealed, 27 SR 1664]

Subp. 6. Amended returns, refunds when no longer married. Where ~~a husband and wife~~ spouses filed a joint return and subsequently are no longer married, an amended return or claim for refund filed by one of the former spouses shall be allowed if the item is attributable to that spouse to the extent of that spouse's tax liability. Where a joint return was filed, the spouse's tax liability shall be determined according to the following formula:

$$\frac{\text{Spouse's recomputed separate tax liability}}{\text{Both spouse's recomputed separate tax liability}} \times \text{Recomputed joint tax liability} = \text{Spouse's share of joint tax liability}$$

The spouse's share of the joint liability is then subtracted from the spouse's contributions through withholding or estimated tax or other credits which were used to pay that joint liability. The amount of the refund to be made to the spouse cannot exceed the amount of the joint overpayment shown on the amended return or claim for refund.

Joint estimated tax payments shall be divided according to the provisions of part 8093.0200. Where credits are not paid out of joint funds, the credit shall belong to the spouse who made the payment on which the credit is based. Where credits are attributable to, earned by, or paid to both spouses jointly, or paid from joint funds of both spouses, they shall be divided equally between the spouses.

When an amended joint return or a claim for refund is filed under this part, no refund will be given to a spouse unless an amended return or claim for refund is filed by that spouse. No additional tax liability may be created and assessed against a spouse unless an amended return is filed by that spouse or an order of assessment is issued by the department.

Subp. 7. [Repealed, 27 SR 1664]

Subp. 8. Signing of returns.

A. A joint return must be signed by both ~~the husband and wife~~ spouses unless the return is made by an agent of both ~~the husband and wife~~ spouses, or one spouse signs as the agent of the other. Any spouse who makes a joint return through an agent assumes the responsibility for making the return and incurs liability for the penalty provided for erroneous, false, or fraudulent returns. One spouse cannot sign as the agent of the other unless the return is accompanied by a power of attorney authorizing such action by the spouse not signing the return. Other agents must also submit their power of attorney with the return.
