

ACHF Public Radio Competitive Grants Program

Review Committee

| First Name | Last Name | Organization | Title and Organization Description | Conflicts of Interest |
|------------|-----------|---|--|---|
| Jim | du Bois | Minnesota Broadcasters Association | President and CEO. The Minnesota Broadcasters Association promotes and protects Minnesota broadcasting by representing radio and television broadcasters from across the state. | Reported conflicts of interest and did not review proposals |
| David | O'Fallon | Minnesota Humanities Center | President. The Humanities Center conducts professional development opportunities; creates and disseminates one-of-a-kind educational resources; partners with other organizations to offer humanities programs statewide; and operates a full-service meeting and event center. David O'Fallon served on the ACHF Planning Committee that developed the vision, framework, guiding principles and ten-year goals for the fund. | Reported no conflicts of interest |
| Sue | Gens | State Arts Board | Executive Director. The Minnesota State Arts Board is a state agency that stimulates and encourages the creation, performance, and appreciation of the arts in the state. The State Arts Board provided guidance as part of the ACHF Planning Committee that developed the vision, framework, guiding principles and ten-year goals for the fund. | Reported no conflicts of interest |
| Ann | Alquist | National Center for Media Engagement (NCME) | Director of Radio Engagement. The NCME supports public media organizations nationwide in engaging their communities by providing resources for stations and producers to engage citizens across multiple platforms, build sustainable community relationships, and stimulate citizen participation. Ann Alquist worked previously as a public radio news director and contractor in Minnesota. | Reported no conflicts of interest |

ACHF Public Radio Competitive Grants Program

| | | | | |
|-------|---------|------------------------------------|--|-----------------------------------|
| Sue | Mackert | Perpich Center for Arts Education | Executive Director. The Perpich Center for Arts Education strengthens the arts education community, and improves access to high quality arts experiences to students statewide. | Reported no conflicts of interest |
| David | Marty | Reif Center | President. The Reif Center provides Minnesota's northland with world-class performances, often accompanied by educational opportunities, and is also home to several local arts organizations. | Did not review proposals |
| Pat | Mulso | Freeborn County Historical Society | Executive Director. The Freeborn County Historical Society preserves and enhances the history of Freeborn County, including Freeborn County Historical Museum and Village. Pat Mulso served of the ACHF Planning Committee that developed the vision, framework, guiding principles and ten-year goals for the fund. | Reported no conflicts of interest |

Per Minnesota Statutes §13.599, Subd. 4, data created or maintained by a granting agency as part of the evaluation process are protected nonpublic data until completion of the evaluation process at which time the data are public with the exception of trade secret data as defined and classified in section 13.37.

The Conflict of Interest Disclosure template may be viewed at:

www.admin.state.mn.us/documents/grants_conflict_of_interest_disclosure_form.doc