Send both undergraduate and graduate transcripts, if applicable. The transcript(s) may be mailed directly from the institution(s) to the Board or sent along with your application, as long as the transcripts are still in their original, sealed envelope. All transcripts must be in English or accompanied by literal English translations completed by a certified translation service.

Not yet graduated but have earned 24 semester credits from an engineering graduate program at an institution that offers an EAC-ABET accredited bachelors degree in the same engineering discipline	Submit a final, official transcript in English for your undergraduate degree and an unofficial transcript provided through the registrar at your institution listing your graduate program credits (student audit/progress reports, grade sheets and course listings do not qualify). NOTE: With this education evidence, you qualify to apply for the exam. However, the Board will not issue your EIT certificate until you submit final, official graduate degree transcripts. See instructions in section directly above.
Non-EAC-ABET accredited bachelors degree ²	Unless you have a completed education evaluation already in your “MyNCEES” record, you must obtain an evaluation or have an official copy of an existing evaluation sent to the Board. The evaluation must meet the Board’s guidelines and must be sent directly from the evaluation service to the Board either by US mail or electronically. Read the Education Evaluation Guidelines below for approved evaluation services and other specifics.

Education Evaluation Guidelines

FOREIGN EDUCATION: Applicants who have been educated outside the US and whose engineering program is not recognized under the Washington Accord¹ must have their degree(s) evaluated. Education must meet the minimum number of engineering science and design credits required in an Engineering Accreditation Commission (EAC-ABET) accredited bachelor degree.

¹Use the International Engineering Alliance website “Qualification Checker.” Select your country from the drop down and then select “Washington Accord.” You will be sent to a site that contains a list of accredited programs for your country.

DOMESTIC EDUCATION: Applicants who have been educated in the United States, but their degree program is not EAC-ABET accredited, must have their degree(s) evaluated in order to determine if their education meets the minimum requirements for engineering science and design credits.

Note: Engineering Technology certificates or degrees accredited by the Engineering Technology Accreditation Commission (ETAC-ABET), under most circumstances, do not meet the requirements for engineering science and design credits as required by the Board. NCEES Credentials Evaluations does not typically evaluate engineering technology degrees and requires special approval by the Board to complete the evaluation. If you have a ETAC-ABET accredited degree and wish to have it evaluated, please contact the Board office for instruction.

Notice Regarding Special Accommodations

A BRIEF SUMMARY OF YOUR RIGHTS UNDER THE AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT

INTRODUCTION

The Americans with Disabilities Act (“ADA”) covers “public entities.” The Board is a “public entity” covered by the ADA. The Board may not refuse to allow a person with a disability to take the examination simply because the person has a disability. It must permit persons with disabilities to take the examination in an integrated setting unless separate or different measures are necessary to ensure equal opportunity. It must eliminate unnecessary eligibility standards or rules that deny individuals with disabilities an equal opportunity to take the examination.

WHO IS COVERED?

The ADA provides comprehensive civil rights protection for “qualified individuals with disabilities.” An “individual with a disability” is a person who: 1) has a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits a “major life activity,” 2) has a record of such an impairment, or 3) is regarded as having such an impairment. “Major life activities” include functions such as caring for oneself, performing manual tasks, walking, seeing, hearing, speaking, breathing, learning, and working. Individuals who currently engage in the illegal use of drugs are not protected by the ADA when an action is taken on the basis of their current illegal use of drugs.

A “qualified” individual with a disability is one who meets the essential eligibility requirements for the examination. The Board is not required to take any action that would result in a fundamental alteration in the nature of the examination or an undue financial and administrative burden. However, the Board must take any other action, if available, that would not result in a fundamental alteration or undue burdens but would ensure that individuals with disabilities receive the benefits or services.

WHAT IS REQUIRED?

The Board is required to make reasonable modifications in any policies, practices, and procedures that deny equal access to individuals with disabilities, unless a fundamental alteration in the examination would result. To do so, it must furnish auxiliary aids and services when necessary to ensure effective communication, unless an undue burden or fundamental alteration would result. The Board may not place special charges on individuals with disabilities to cover the costs of measures necessary to ensure nondiscriminatory treatment, such as making modifications required to provide program accessibility or providing qualified interpreters. Finally, it must operate the examination so that, when viewed in its entirety, it is readily accessible to and usable by individuals with disabilities.

Integration of individuals with disabilities into the mainstream of society is fundamental to the purposes of the ADA. The Board may not provide the examination to individuals with disabilities through programs that are separate or different, unless the separate programs are necessary to ensure that the benefits and services are equally effective. Even when separate programs are permitted, an individual with a disability still has the right to choose to participate in the regular program. The Board cannot require an individual with a disability to accept a special accommodation or benefit if the individual chooses not to accept it.

QUESTIONS?

If you have any questions about the ADA we encourage you to call the United States Department of Justice, which has an ADA information line, at (202) 514-0301 (voice) or (202) 514-0381/0383 (TDD). These telephone numbers are not toll-free numbers.
