

Mark your calendar for November 30th to attend Committing to Caregiving, an opportunity to be part of making Minnesota a better place to give and receive care.

Join us as we envision a future where caregiving is fully supported and create a shared plan to make changes that are possible right now. Opening remarks from Department of Human Services Aging and Disability Services Administration Assistant Commissioner, Natasha Merz and Minnesota Board on Aging Interim Chair, Maureen Schneider.

We will have three focus areas of discussion:

- Improving connections to resources
- Building capacity of providers
- Evaluating our efforts.

Everyone who is ready to inform and commit to this work is welcome.

Please register by Nov. 22. Space is limited, so register early.
