UPDATE ON MINNESOTA EXAMS

PSI Services proctors both the Minnesota Jurisprudence and Dental Assisting State Licensure exams. PSI Services just notified our agency that they are opening a few select testing sites in Minnesota to proctor these exams starting on April 13, 2020. They will observe social distancing recommendations made by the CDC. If you are an applicant that still needs to sit for either of these exams, please visit the PSI website. If you know of any potential student or applicant that needs to take either of the previously listed exams, please direct them to the PSI website. Students may learn more information or schedule their test date for either of the exams listed above at www.psiexams.com.

PSI Services will start proctoring exams at the following sites starting on April 13, 2020:

- Duluth
- Moorhead
- Edina (Room A)
- Woodbury
