

RFO Number RFO0132
Requesting Entity Name Human Services Department
Request Title eLearning Development and Instructional Design Staff Augment
Request Description The Minnesota Department of Human Services (DHS), through its Disability Services Division (DSD), is seeking an eLearning developer and an instructional designer to work on-site at DHS as part of the disability services training team. The contracted staff will increase training development capacity required to complete the design and development of online learning and testing modules. The contractor will work within Department of Human Services (DHS) - Disability Services Division (DSD) and will initially focus on the self-directed workforce unionization training initiative, but may be involved in other similar connected initiatives within DSD all which fall under the umbrella of the DHS Olmstead Plan. This will include training for the self-directed workforce on how to implement person-centered support plans and support self-determination by program participants; supporting program participants in choosing and using a self-directed or participant-employer service model; and case managers and certified assessors who help program participants make informed choices about service models and develop support plans for program participants that are person-centered.
