STATE OF MINNESOTA
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS

FOR THE PROFESSIONAL EDUCATOR LICENSING AND STANDARDS BOARD

In the Matter of the Possible Permanent Rules Relating toTeacher Licensure, Renewal, and Other Legislative Requirements	ORDER ON REVIEW OF DUAL NOTICE AND ADDITIONAL NOTICE PLAN

This matter came on before Assistant Chief Administrative Law Judge Kristien R. E. Butler upon the request of the Minnesota Professional Educator Licensing and Standards Board (Board) for review and approval of its Additional Notice Plan pursuant to Minn. Stat. § 14.101 (2024). Board seeks a legal review of its materials pursuant to Minn. R. 1400.2060 (2023).

On January 24, 2025, Board filed documents with the Office of Administrative Hearings in support of the review and approval it seeks. After an inquiry from the Judge, Board submitted a supplement to its filing on January 30, 2025.

Under its Additional Notice Plan, Board intends to notify a wide range of organizations and associations likely to be impacted, or potentially impacted, by the proposed rules, along with those who have expressed interest in being alerted to Board's ongoing rulemaking work. Board's efforts of notice are appropriately encompassing. Additionally, all content required to be included in the notice by Minnesota statute and rule has been incorporated accordingly.

Based upon a review of the written submissions from Board, the Judge now hereby issues the following:

ORDER

Board's Additional Notice Plan is APPROVED.

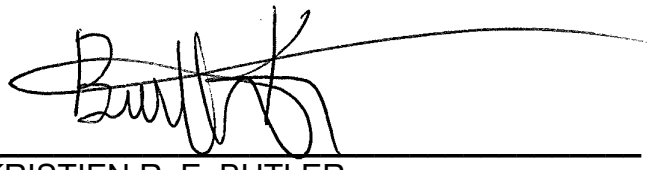
Dated: January 30, 2025



KRISTIEN R. E. BUTLER
