Business Disaster Loans — up to $2 million*
SBA disaster loans are available to businesses, regardless of size, and nonprofits including charitable organizations such as churches and private universities.

Borrow up to $2 million to repair or replace damaged or destroyed real estate, machinery and equipment, inventory and other business assets. Loans may also be used for structural improvements such as adding a retaining wall or sump pump, clearing out overgrown landscaping, building a safe room or elevating the property to lessen the effect of future disasters.

Economic Injury Disaster Loans — up to $2 million*
These loans are for small businesses, agricultural cooperatives, aquaculture enterprises and nonprofits affected by disaster to help meet working capital needs or normal business operating expenses through the recovery period. Businesses are eligible for these loans regardless of whether or not they have suffered property damage.

*The maximum loan for any combination of property damage and/or economic injury is $2 million.

When Disaster Strikes
Even with the best preparedness planning, a disaster can affect your business. But rest assured, the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) offers two low-interest loans designed to help you get up and running again as quickly as possible.

How to Get Started

1. Apply for an SBA Loan
   disasterloan.sba.gov/ela
   Find Disaster Recovery Centers at sba.gov/disaster.
   (800) 659-2955 or TTY (800) 887-8339 to request an application.

2. The Application Process
   After an initial credit check, an SBA loss verifier estimates the total cost to repair or replace your damaged property.
   An SBA loan officer reviews applications and guides applicants through the process.

3. Loan Decision
   If approved, SBA contacts applicants to discuss the loan.
   A case manager assists with closing the loan and scheduling disbursements.
