

Do you have a long-term care plan?

About 70% of Americans turning age 65 this year will need some type of long-term care – care that Medicare and your private health insurance will not cover. If you want to maintain independence and control in your life, you need to know your long-term care options and plan for them early.

Visit the Own Your Future website so you can take control now and “Own Your Future!”

mn.gov/ownyourfuture

Learn more about long-term care

Get free planning information

Have choice, control and peace of mind

