1) An Echo-type program aimed at Law Enforcement and/or a curriculum for law enforcement regarding substance use disorders (3.92)

2) A P-COAT program to address reimbursement issues in treatment of opioid use disorder. Patient-Centered Opioid Addiction Treatment (P-COAT): https://www.asam.org/advocacy/advocacy-principles/cover-it/p-coat-apm (6.25)

3) Create a public/community prevention program with emphasis on substance use in the home, identifying substance use, disposal of controlled substances, how to access services, alternative treatments, etc. (7.25)

4) Develop resiliency in the current workforce (7.33)

5) Create an in community-wide stigma reduction and awareness campaign education campaign about treatment and recovery to reduce stigma of and provide support to the individual in recovery. (7.42)

6) Create a school prevention program with an emphasis on social/emotional learning (7.5)

7) Expand access to treatment services to youth through schools 7.92

8) Expand access for criminal justice involved individuals by removing current barriers (recall we are sub-grouping this, so more ideas may come out of that process 8.08

9) Increase access to overdose prevention programs and medications 8.58

10) Expand workforce- including scholarships to counselors and peer recovery support workers, fellowships for addiction medicine providers, expanding primary care waverling, hiring people in recovery. Provide LADC/UMICAD licensed counselors training on mental health to address the more complex patients they are seeing. 8.75

11) A tele-health pilot for opioid use disorders with availability of psychiatric, other treatment, and recovery support services, including metrics and outcomes, by removing addressing barriers that currently exist.9.5

12) Expand access to holistic pain treatment and management. Pilot Projects that account for cultural or individual differences are preferred 9.58

13) A "One Call" service for opioid use disorder questions, staffed by clinicians that treat opioid use disorder. Ideally open to all service sectors. (Recall we are going to discuss this idea with the "Echo Folks" to gauge interest/ideas) 10.25

14) Expand access to supportive housing for those with opioid use disorder. Projects that account for cultural or individual differences are preferred. 11.25

15) Expand mental health care and screening to those with opioid use disorder and chronic pain. Projects that account for cultural or individual differences are preferred. 12.75

16) Long term care coordination for the continuum of care for opioid/substance use disorder, including transitions between levels of care, accessing care, emergency/initial entry points, out of drug court, detox, jails etc. 12.83

17) Expand access to evidence based and/or practice based evidence treatment for opioid use disorder, including the full continuum of care, co-occurring substance use and mental health disorders. Projects that account for cultural or individual differences are preferred. 13.83