Raffle Ticket Requirements

1. Stub - Detachable stub with a space for the purchaser's name, address, and phone number.

2. Each ticket and detachable stub must have the same sequential number, beginning with number "1".

3. Prizes - At a minimum, the three most expensive prizes to be awarded.
   If additional prizes will be awarded that are not listed, the raffle ticket must state: "A complete list of additional prizes is available upon request."
   See Raffle Checklist in the Lawful Gambling Manual for additional prize requirements.

4. Time, date, and location where winners will be selected or determined.

5. Organization name and license number.

6. A statement regarding the winner's responsibility for any applicable fees and taxes.

7. Price of raffle ticket
   - All tickets must be sold for the same price and may not be discounted. For example, a $1 ticket may not be discounted as 6 for $5.
   - The tickets may not contain the words "suggested donation" or any other implied request for money or contributions (other than the ticket price).

As an incentive for more sales, your organization may offer multiple pricing levels - Separate sets of tickets may be sold with a different price. In each price set, all tickets must be the same size, shape, and thickness.
