

STATE of MINNESOTA

Proclamation

- WHEREAS: It is time to take action to eliminate racism in our communities; and
- WHEREAS: By sharing stories and life experiences, dialogue participants expand their knowledge and understanding about how racism affects all of us; and
- WHEREAS: Understanding how racism affects all of us improves our communities and institutions; and
- WHEREAS: Hosting a community dialogue on race is an opportunity for colleagues and friends to engage in essential conversations about race; and
- WHEREAS: The people of Minnesota deserve an opportunity for open dialogue, to expand knowledge, and to inspire understanding, while engaging in group conversations about race.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MARK DAYTON, Governor of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Wednesday, October 23, 2013, as:

DIALOGUE ON RACE DAY

in the State of Minnesota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this 3rd day of October.

GOVERNOR

SECRETARY OF STATE