

STATE of MINNESOTA

Proclamation

- WHEREAS: Sean William Bevans faced the life-threatening diagnosis he was given at age 15 with courage and determination. He persevered through all of his treatment with a stoic, "let's get it done" attitude; and
- WHEREAS: Prior to his illness, Sean was a talented hockey player, golfer, softball player, and great pitcher with many friends. Sean maintains all of his friendships and returned to the sports he loves when he was in remission, when he relapsed, and when he was finally cancer free; and
- WHEREAS: Sean was a good student before and after his illness, graduating from high school and from the University of Minnesota, Duluth, with a degree in geography; and
- WHEREAS: Because of his kind and caring personality, Sean is a wonderful son and brother to his immediate family, and is well-loved by his large extended family; and
- WHEREAS: Sean has conquered his illness with grace and courage, and is ever appreciative of the support of his family and friends.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MARK DAYTON, Governor of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Friday, May 30, 2014, as:

SEAN BEVANS DAY

in the State of Minnesota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this 28th day of May.
