

STATE of MINNESOTA

Proclamation

- WHEREAS: Project management is the profession by which organizations plan, organize, secure, and manage resources to clearly define and execute visions and goals; and
- WHEREAS: Project management relates directly to the project-driven and project-based fields of healthcare, architecture, construction, aerospace, defense, software development, computer networking, telecommunications, and many Minnesota project-related industries and organizations; and
- WHEREAS: Project managers and their teams are the dedicated professionals that lead and oversee various projects and are responsible for accomplishing stated project objectives; and
- WHEREAS: Project-based learning helps our young people develop project management as a life skill and prepares them for the 21st century workforce; and
- WHEREAS: Project management can be an essential force for good in helping to improve society to be more just, participatory, and sustainable; and
- WHEREAS: During this month of September, we recognize project managers as key contributors to every aspect of industry in the state of Minnesota, and encourage people in Minnesota to learn more about and explore project management career opportunities.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, TIM WALZ, Governor of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the month of September 2020, as:

PROJECT MANAGEMENT MONTH

in the State of Minnesota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this 28th day of August.
