

STATE of MINNESOTA

Proclamation

- WHEREAS: In 1926, Dr. Carter G. Woodson, a Harvard Scholar, established the observance of African American History, to reveal the contributions, achievements, and involvement of African American people in the development of our American democracy; and
- WHEREAS: The history of some of us is the history of all of us, and our history is what shapes us as a state and a nation; and
- WHEREAS: We must acknowledge and pay tribute to the generations of individuals who struggled with adversity, risked their lives for justice, fought a fight that at times seemed impossible to win, and continue to fight for equality and the American Dream; and
- WHEREAS: African Americans are engaged throughout our society as our friends and neighbors, scholars, teachers, business people, community leaders, and contributors to our Minnesota quality of life; and
- WHEREAS: The month of February gives us a chance to honor the many heroes who are unknown and unnamed, who have contributed to the struggle for freedom and justice for all; and
- WHEREAS: Black History Month encourages all Minnesotans to come together, reflect on our collective past, and reveal its impact on present conditions; and
- WHEREAS: As a state, we can continue to work together to guarantee equal opportunity for all individuals.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, TIM WALZ, Governor of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the month of February 2019, as:

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

in the State of Minnesota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this 31st day of January.

GOVERNOR
