

STATE of MINNESOTA

Proclamation

- WHEREAS: The HIV/AIDS epidemic continues as a leading public health crisis among our African American and African-born communities within the United States. According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, 1 in 16 black men and 1 in 32 black women will be diagnosed with HIV infection at some point in their lifetime; and
- WHEREAS: While the African American and African-born communities represent approximately 14 percent of the population of the United States, they now account for 44 percent of new HIV infections and 46 percent of people living with HIV; and
- WHEREAS: While African American and African-born men, women, and children represent only 4 percent of the total population in Minnesota, they represent one third (2,480) of the 7,136 persons reported to be currently living with HIV in the state; and
- WHEREAS: National Black HIV/AIDS Awareness Day is a nationwide observance to call attention to the threat and devastating impact of HIV/AIDS on our African American and African-born communities, and to mobilize all African Americans and Africans to be educated, tested, treated, and involved with their local HIV/AIDS community efforts; and
- WHEREAS: National Black HIV/AIDS Awareness Day, which has been overseen by a dedicated Strategic Leadership Council made up of prominent national organizations, will be observed for the 13th year and will mobilize community-based organizations and stakeholders under the 2013 campaign slogan, "I Am My Brother/Sister's Keeper: Fight HIV/AIDS!;" and
- WHEREAS: Local, community-based organizations are hosting community events, exhibits, testing opportunities, and trainings as a call to action to recognize this day and its importance to our African American and African-born communities and all concerned citizens; and
- WHEREAS: It is fitting that we join with these national and local groups to express our strong support for National Black HIV/AIDS Awareness Day and initiatives to prevent the spread of HIV/AIDS in the African American and African-born communities, and provide treatment and care services for those living with the disease.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MARK DAYTON, Governor of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim February 7, 2013 as:

in the State of Minnesota, and urge all community-based organizations, religious communities, civic groups, elected officials, governmental agencies, and local residents to support this day and participate in events planned to commemorate this occasion.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this 18th day of January.

GOVERNOR
