

The Latino Legal Experience in Minnesota

An exhibit celebrating the successes and accomplishments of Latino professionals in Minnesota's legal community, and recognizing legal struggles faced by the state's Hispanic community.

View the Exhibit:

March 19 - 30, 2018

Minnesota State Law Library

25 Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd.
St. Paul

Free • Open to the Public

Special Panel Discussion

(L to R) Asst. U.S. Attorney Lola Velzquez-Aguilu, Judge Peter Reyes, Ann Anaya

The State Law Library will also host a panel discussion with several of the people who helped develop the "Latino Legal Experience in Minnesota" exhibit.

The panel discussion will be moderated by Senior U.S. District Court Judge Ann D. Montgomery, and will feature Minnesota Court of Appeals Judge Peter M. Reyes, Jr.; Ann Anaya of 3M, who previously served as an assistant U.S. attorney; and Assistant United States Attorney Lola Velazquez-Aguilu.

The panel discussion, will feature welcoming remarks from Minnesota Supreme Court Chief Justice Lorie S. Gildea.

Tuesday, March 27 @ Noon

Minnesota Judicial Center, Room 230. Seating is limited.

The "Latino Legal Experience in Minnesota" exhibit is on loan from the U.S. District Court, District of Minnesota.

