Labor-Management Relations

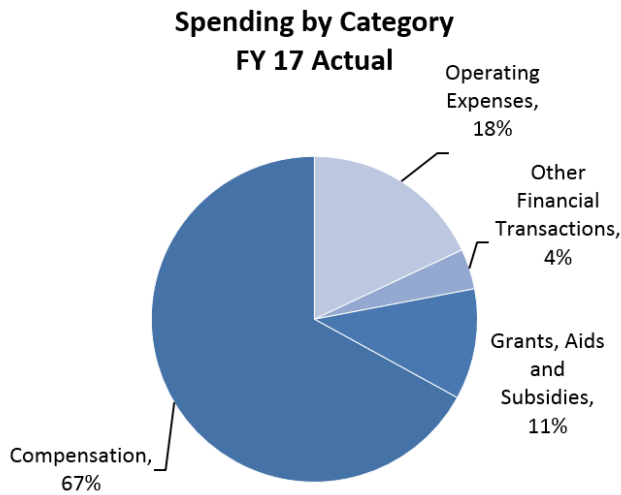

1. The BMS monitors collective bargaining disputes and works to prevent strikes and arbitration by directly mediating labor negotiations and grievances and by providing labor-management training.
2. Representation rights (employee's right to unionize or refrain from such) are regulated through a quasi-judicial administrative process including administrative investigations, hearings and elections.
3. BMS clients are: employers, labor organizations, employees, elected officials, labor attorneys and other labor relations professionals.
4. BMS assists the Public Employment Labor Relations Board while the independent board prepares to resolve unfair labor practice claims beginning July 1, 2020.

Alternative Dispute Resolution and Collaborative Processes

Through the Office of Collaboration and Dispute Resolution (OCDR), BMS provides: 1) public policy collaborative problem solving services; 2) funds and promotes the broad use of community-based dispute resolution across Minnesota; and, 3) assistance to other state and local agencies in effectively implementing collaborative and dispute resolution initiatives. The OCDR works with elected officials, state and local government employees, and citizen stakeholders to develop sustainable solutions to contentious public policy issues.

The BMS contributes to the statewide outcomes of: A thriving economy that encourages business growth and employment opportunities; strong and stable families and communities; and efficient and accountable government services.
