AT A GLANCE

- The Minnesota Department of Human Rights ("MDHR") is the state's civil rights enforcement agency and envisions a world where everyone can lead lives full of dignity and joy, free from discrimination.
- The Minnesota Human Rights Act ("the Act") was signed into law in 1967 and protects the civil rights of all Minnesotans in every county in the state.
- The Act protects Minnesotans and tasks MDHR with enforcement duties in employment, housing, education, credit, public accommodations, and public services based on a person's protected class, such as: race, religion, disability, national origin, sex, marital status, familial status, age, sexual orientation, and gender identity.
- The Act also tasks MDHR with regulating state contractors to ensure men and women are compensated equally for equal work, and to ensure that contractors are making good faith efforts to maintain inclusive and equitable workforces so that the companies' employees reflect Minnesota's vibrant communities.
- Of the cases investigated by MDHR during this period, disability discrimination was the most common charge, followed by race, then sex discrimination.

PURPOSE

The Minnesota Department of Human Rights is the state's civil rights enforcement agency and envisions a world where everyone can lead lives full of dignity and joy, free from discrimination.

BUDGET

Source: Budget Planning & Analysis System (BPAS)

Source: Consolidated Fund Statement

MDHR's budget primarily comes from the state's general fund, with a small amount of additional revenue generated from issuing equal pay and workforce certificates to state contractors and fees from educational trainings. MDHR receives approximately $200,000 annually under a workshare agreement with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) as payment for investigations of employment discrimination cases. Over 90 percent of MDHR's expenses are payroll, rent, and IT expenses.

STRATEGIES

The work of MDHR falls into three broad areas:

- Investigate Claims of Discrimination and Disparate Impact: Since its establishment in 1967, the Department investigates complaints of discrimination and issues determinations as to whether probable cause exists that discrimination has occurred. At any point in the process, parties are offered voluntary mediation to attempt to settle their concerns without a full investigation. If that is unsuccessful, or parties choose not to participate, the Department conducts a full investigation into the case and issues a determination. When the Department finds probable cause of discrimination, the Department attempts to conciliate a settlement between the parties that will resolve the discriminatory practices, make the charging party whole, avoid future instances of discrimination, and avoid litigation. The Department's civil rights investigation process is free and does not require representation by an attorney.
- Ensure Equal Employment Opportunity with State Contractors: Through the Office of Equity and Inclusion for Minnesota Businesses, the Department issues workforce certificates and Equal Pay Certificates to large state contract vendors. This ensures that such vendors comply with federal and state equal employment opportunity laws. The Department also monitors the good faith efforts of state contract vendors with a workforce certificate to implement equal employment opportunities. Since 2014, the Department has worked with contractors who hold Equal Pay Certificates to ensure that they are following all required equal pay laws to prevent gender-based pay disparities. The Department has implemented a strategic compliance model to focus monitoring and compliance efforts on the most likely violations of state law.
- Community Engagement and Education to Eliminate Discrimination & Disparate Treatment: The Department uses community engagement, education, and outreach to educate community members and to find solutions to overt and subtle discriminatory practices in our systems and communities. The Department actively participates in interagency work as part of the Olmstead Subcabinet, the Minnesota
  Interagency Council on Homelessness, the Minnesota Emerging Entrepreneur Board, the Minnesota Council on Disability, and other areas.
