AT A GLANCE

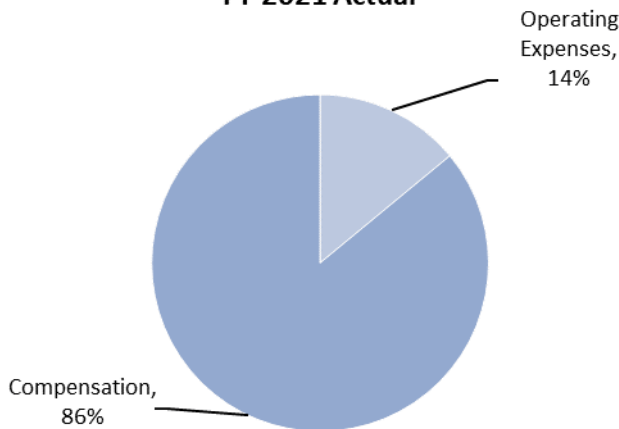

- Five appellate judges, who sit as panels of three or five.
- Budget 100% funded by the Workers Compensation Fund.
- We review workers' compensation appeals from the Office of Administrative Hearings, the Department of Labor & Industry and union workers' compensation arbitration.
- We also decide petitions to reopen workers' compensation settlements and awards of benefits.
- Our website provides information, rules, and a searchable archive of workers' compensation appellate decisions.
- Appeals from our decisions proceed directly to the Minnesota Supreme Court.

PURPOSE

The Workers' Compensation Court of Appeals' mission is to provide accessible, fair, and timely review of disputed workers' compensation issues which affect entitlement to and delivery of workers' compensation wage loss and medical benefits.

STRATEGIES

We provide accessible, fair, and timely review of disputes before us by:

- Promptly reviewing the evidentiary record created by the initial decision making body;
- Integrating our case management, calendaring, and document filing system with the DLI Campus system;
- Coordinating disparate technologies across the workers' compensation system;
- Presiding over oral arguments;
- Conducting necessary legal research;
- Deciding the issues;
- Issuing appropriate written orders, decisions, and memoranda; and
- Promptly preparing the record for review in cases appealed to the Minnesota Supreme Court.

RESULTS

We decide the disputes before us promptly and fairly, which:

- Ensures the timely and efficient delivery of benefits to injured workers at a reasonable cost to employers;
- Maintains economic stability for injured workers and their families;
- Provides for appropriate medical treatment of work-related illnesses and injuries;
- Supports a competitive business climate for Minnesota employers by reducing the amount of litigation; and
- Supports employers in creating safe and healthy work environments.

Our written decisions inform the parties and the public of the basis for the court's decisions and create a consistent body of law interpreting and applying the Minnesota Workers' Compensation Act. Our decisions are currently provided to the public at: <https://mn.gov/workcomp/decisions/>, distributed to the agency listserv, and available through legal databases such as Westlaw.
