Prioritization overview

- 116 recommendations approved for legislative report
- Priority recommendations: goal of 20
 - Question: all equal priority, or prioritize within the 20? (To discuss after the priority recommendations have been identified)
- Decision rule:
 - Strong supermajority (75%) as a starting point
 - Expand or refine from there; possibly multiple rounds of voting
- 29 votes per member for first round (25% of 116 recommendations)

Prioritization activity

- 29 votes per member
 - Stickers with your initials, place along edge of the recs you want to prioritize
 - Each member can allocate a maximum of 2 votes to a recommendation
- Mural tutorial and practice
 - Outline, hand/move mode, navigation settings
- Practice voting – favorite winter beverage
- 1 hour (check back in if you finish early)

Prioritization wrap-up

- Task Force question:
 - All equal priority?
 - Or put these in priority order?
- Any questions or comments?

Draft agenda for February
