

NATURAL RESOURCES TECHNICIAN (TRAILS AND WATERWAYS)

KIND OF WORK

Technical work including researching land ownership; preparing fact sheets for land acquisition; preparing and/or reviewing project and/or rehabilitation proposals; inspecting development and/or maintenance projects; participating at meetings involving local units of government, user groups and/or concerned citizens; and disseminating information on rules, regulations, and facility availability.

NATURE AND PURPOSE

Under general supervision/procedural control, perform technical tasks dealing with acquisition, development and operation of trails and waterways; performs related work as required.

KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS AND ABILITIES REQUIRED

Knowledge of:

Policies and procedures for land acquisition and development.

Principles and practices of effective management of the natural resources as they pertain to recreation.

Land use planning, zoning and associated regulations.

Construction and landscaping methods and materials.

Ability to:

Establish and maintain effective working relationships with managers, other employees and the public.

Interpret topographical maps, aerial photographs, and engineering plans and specifications.

Interpret legal descriptions, surveys, and legal documents related to land (deeds, abstracts, etc.).

Natural Resources Technician (Trails and Waterways)

Class Specification

Page 2

Operate and maintain motorized equipment including tractors, groomers, trucks, snowmobiles, and all terrain vehicles.

Operate and maintain hand tools including chain saws.

Direct the work performance of laborers.

Est.: 8/84 T.C.: 4/88

Ckd.: 11/92 Former Title(s): Natural Resources Technician-Trails

Rev.: and Waterway Technician