

Office Memorandum

Date: February 15, 2017
To: Agency Payroll, Human Resources, and Accounting Staff
From: Mary Muellner, Director, Statewide Payroll Services
Nancy Erickson, Supervisor, Enterprise Human Resources Division
Subject: Confirmation of Social Security Administration (SSA) Information

Report FIHU9448, Employees with Social Security Data Discrepancies (DocumentDirect/InfoPac ID HU9448), has been updated with SEMA4 information verified with the Social Security Administration (SSA). The new version of this report is dated 02/14/2017. This report is generated quarterly to allow agencies to follow up on discrepancies throughout the year.

Note: If a message displays indicating the entry could not be found, the list is empty, or no pages available, then there are NO employees with errors in the department(s) for which a user has security clearance.

What does this report show?

This report lists employees who have discrepancies in their SEMA4 Human Resources (HR) information when compared to information on file with the SSA. The discrepancies include one or more of the following types of inconsistencies:

- The employee's name doesn't match the Social Security number (SSN) in the SSA's records. The issue can be either the name or the SSN.
- Employee's birth date does not match the SSA's records.

Note: To safeguard the privacy of employee data, the first five characters of the SSN displayed on the report are masked with an "X" unless the reason code indicates the name or SSN do not match.

SSA emphasizes the following regarding the report. The fact an employee appears on the report does not:

- imply the agency or the employee intentionally provided incorrect information about the employee's name or SSN
- make any statement about the employee's immigration status
- provide a basis, in and of itself, to take any adverse action against the employee such as laying off, suspending, firing, or discriminating against the employee

What must I do?

Agencies must review the report and follow up with employees to resolve all discrepancies, regardless of employee status.

- Errors could be in the SEMA4 data (the result of incorrect information provided to the HR office or of keying errors made when entering the information). In this case, the agency should take appropriate action to correct all errors in SEMA4 (employees do not have the ability to enter these changes in My Personal Information in Self Service).
- Errors could be in the SSA data (for example, the employee has not notified the SSA of a name change). In this case, employees should contact the SSA to correct their information.

Discrepancies must be corrected to ensure correct reporting of employee earnings to the SSA and correct employee W-2s at year end. The consequences of not correcting the errors are:

- The IRS can levy a $50 fine against the employer for each Name/SSN mismatch error. Any fine(s) imposed will be passed to state agencies for payment.
- Employees' earnings may not post correctly to their SSA records, which will negatively impact their future eligibility and payment of Social Security's retirement, disability, and survivor benefits.

Reminders about employee names:

- Employees must always report name changes to the SSA. To obtain a form, they can call 1-800-772-1213, access the SSA web site at <http://www.ssa.gov/ssnumber> or visit their local Social Security office. There is no charge to change a name on a Social Security card, or to request a duplicate card if the employee's card has been lost or stolen. If an employee's name has changed, SEMA4 must reflect the old name until the employee presents a Social Security card that displays the new name.
- The name and Social Security number in SEMA4 must match the Social Security card exactly. Nicknames like Bobbie, Jim, or Pat should only be used in SEMA4 if they appear on the Social Security card.
