MEMORANDUM

Patrick Armon is seeking re-election to the West St. Paul City Council in the November 8, 2016 election. The complainant, David Meisinger, alleges that Mr. Armon's campaign committee, Patrick Armon for City Council, violated Minn. Stat. § 211B.04 by failing to include a disclaimer in the required form on its campaign lawn signs and campaign FaceBook page (www.facebook.com/PatArmonforWSP/.)

Standard for Prima Facie Determinations

To establish a prima facie violation of the Fair Campaign Practices Act, the complainant must allege sufficient facts to show that a violation of law has occurred.¹ The complaining party must submit evidence or allege facts that, if accepted as true, would be sufficient to prove a violation of chapter 211A or 211B (2016).²

For purposes of a prima facie determination, the tribunal must accept the facts that are alleged in the complaint as true, without independent substantiation, provided that those facts are not patently false or inherently incredible.³ A complaint must be dismissed if it does not include evidence or allege facts that, if accepted as true, would be sufficient to prove a violation of chapter 211A or 211B.⁴

Disclaimer Requirement

Minnesota Statutes section 211B.04 makes it unlawful to prepare or disseminate most types of campaign material without prominently disclosing the person or committee causing the material to be prepared or disseminated. The statute provides, in relevant part:

(a) A person who participates in the preparation or dissemination of campaign material other than as provided in section 211B.05, subdivision 1, that does not prominently include the name and address of the person or committee causing the material to be prepared or disseminated in a disclaimer substantially in the form provided in paragraph (b) or (c) is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(b) Except in cases covered by paragraph (c), the required form of disclaimer is: "Prepared and paid for by the committee, (address)" for material prepared and paid for by a principal campaign committee, or "Prepared and paid for by the committee, (address)" for material prepared and paid for by a person or committee other than a principal campaign committee. If the material is produced and disseminated without cost, the words "paid for" may be omitted from the disclaimer.

(d) This section does not apply to fund-raising tickets, business cards, personal letters, or similar items that are clearly being distributed by the candidate.

(e) This section does not apply to an individual or association that is not required to register or report under chapter 10A or 211A.

(f) This section does not apply to the following:

(1) bumper stickers, pins, buttons, pens, or similar small items on which the disclaimer cannot be conveniently printed;

(2) skywriting, wearing apparel, or other means of displaying an advertisement of such a nature that the inclusion of a disclaimer would be impracticable; and

(3) online banner ads and similar electronic communications that link directly to an online page that includes a disclaimer.

“Campaign material” is defined as “any literature, publication, or material that is disseminated for the purpose of influencing voting at a primary or other election.”⁵

The purpose of the disclaimer requirement is to “identify who or what committee prepared, disseminated and paid for the campaign material.”⁶

Analysis

The complainant has attached to the complaint a screen shot from respondent’s FaceBook page and an image of respondent’s campaign sign that appear to lack a disclaimer in the form required.⁷

The respondent’s campaign lawn signs and campaign FaceBook page appear to meet the definition of “campaign material” and are required to have a disclaimer “substantially in the form” provided in Minn. Stat. § 211B.04(b) unless they meet one of the exceptions provided at Minn. Stat. § 211B.04(f).

Accepting the facts alleged in the complaint as true, the administrative law judge concludes that the complainant has set forth prima facie violations of Minn. Stat. § 211B.04. The campaign signs and FaceBook page appear to lack disclaimers substantially in the form required by Minn. Stat. § 211B.04. Without a disclaimer substantially in the form required identifying the name and an address of the person or committee causing the material to be prepared or disseminated, it cannot be determined who prepared and paid for the material. The alleged violations of Minn. Stat. § 211B.04 will proceed to a probable cause hearing as ordered.
