

STATE OF MINNESOTA
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS

FOR THE MINNESOTA DEPARTMENT OF NATURAL RESOURCES

In the Matter of the Appeal of the Trespass
Citation Issued to Craig Douglas Hess

NOTICE OF PREHEARING CONFERENCE AND NOTICE OF HEARING

PLEASE BE ADVISED that a prehearing conference will be held by telephone conference call on Thursday, March 6, 2003, beginning at 4:00 p.m.

Participating in the prehearing conference telephone call will be Allan W. Klein, the undersigned Administrative Law Judge, whose office is located at 100 Washington Square, Suite 1700, Minneapolis, Minnesota 55401, and whose telephone number is (612) 341-7609; the officer who issued the citation, Doug Lage; and the appellant herein, Craig Hess. The Judge will place the conference call. If it is necessary to change the number where you can be reached, or to change the time of the conference call, please contact the Judge immediately at the telephone number above.

The purpose of the prehearing conference telephone call is to determine the nature of the dispute that caused the appeal, and to determine the best way to resolve it. The telephone call is expected to last no more than thirty (30) minutes. If the appeal cannot be resolved during the telephone call itself, then the Judge will set a time for a hearing. The Judge will also decide whether the hearing shall be held by telephone or in person.

The citation that is being appealed was issued pursuant to Minn. Stat. § 97B.002. Subdivision 3 of that statute provides that, if a person requests a hearing in order to appeal a citation, the hearing shall be held pursuant to procedures set forth in Minn. Stat. § 116.072, subd. 6. That statute provides an expedited administrative hearing process, and refers to Minnesota Rules, parts 1400.8510 to 1400.8612. These are the rules that will govern the conduct of this appeal. Copies of the above-referenced statutes and rules may be obtained from the Documents Section of the Department of Administration, 117 University Avenue, St. Paul, Minnesota 55155. Statutes and rules may also be found at county law libraries and many other public libraries in the State. The statutes may also be found using the Internet at www.revisor.leg.state.mn.us/stats/. The rules may be found at www.revisor.leg.state.mn.us/arule/ or at www.oah.state.mn.us.

It is not necessary that a person have an attorney in order to participate in this case. They may, however, choose to be represented by legal counsel or any other representative of their choice.

The only participants in the prehearing conference telephone call will be the Judge, Officer Lage, and Mr. Hess. If a hearing is necessary, the Department of Natural Resources and the Appellant (Mr. Hess) will be the only two "parties." Any other person who desires to become a party to this case must submit a timely petition to intervene pursuant to Minn. Rules pt. 1400.8570. This petition must show how that person's legal rights, duties and privileges may be determined or affected by the decision in this case. The petition must also set forth the grounds and purposes for which intervention is sought, and shall indicate petitioner's statutory right to intervene if one should exist. If the petition is granted, and the petitioner is given full party privileges, then the petitioner will have the right to present evidence and witnesses, and will also have the right to question witnesses presented by the other parties. Even without filing a petition to intervene, any person may offer testimony or other evidence that is relevant to the case, but they are subject to being questioned by the parties. Generally, non-parties are not allowed to question witnesses provided by the parties.

If a hearing is held, the Administrative Law Judge must base his recommendation to the Commissioner only on factual information or evidence that is part of the hearing record. Persons participating in the hearing should have available at the time of the hearing all documents, records, witnesses and any other evidence they need to present their position. Subpoenas may be available to compel the attendance of witnesses or other production of documents. See Minnesota Rules part 1400.8601 for the procedures regarding subpoenas.

After the hearing is over, the Administrative Law Judge will issue a recommended decision. A copy will be sent to each party and to the Commissioner of Natural Resources. After allowing at least five days to pass, the Commissioner will issue a final order. During the five-day period, the parties may file comments with the Commissioner regarding the recommended decision.

Failure to participate in the prehearing conference telephone call or failure to appear at the hearing will result in the citation being upheld and the fine having to be paid within thirty (30) days of the issuance of the Commissioner's decision, with no further opportunities for administrative appeal.

It is likely that an appeal hearing will cost the taxpayers more than the amount of the fine imposed by the citation. Appeal hearings should be limited to cases where there is a legitimate, good faith disagreement about the facts or the law. The statute (§ 116.072, subd. 6(d)) provides that if the Administrative Law Judge finds that a hearing was requested solely for purposes of delay or that the hearing request was frivolous, the costs of holding the hearing may be added to the amount of the fine.

Questions concerning settlement of this matter may be directed to the issuing officer or Pat Watts, Policy/Legal Analyst, Minnesota Department of Natural Resources, 500 Lafayette Road, St. Paul, Minnesota 55155-4047, telephone (651) 296-4883.

Dated: February 18, 2003
