MEMORANDUM

Minnesota Statutes § 211A.02 requires candidates or committees who receive contributions or make disbursements of over $750 in a calendar year, to file financial reports with the “filing officer.”¹ In addition, Minnesota Statutes § 211A.05 subd. 1, requires that candidates or committee treasurers certify to the filing officer that all financial reports required by section 211A.02 have been submitted or that the candidate or committee did not receive contributions or make disbursements exceeding $750 in the calendar year. The certification must be submitted to the filing officer no later than seven days after the general or special election.

If a candidate or committee fails to file a required financial report on the date it is due, the filing officer shall immediately notify the candidate or committee of the failure to file.² If the report is not filed within ten days after the notification is mailed, the filing officer shall file a complaint under section 211B.32.³

Lance Huston was a candidate for Mayor of Apple Valley in 2006. According to the complaint, Mr. Huston failed to file the required campaign financial report certification of filing within seven days of the general election as required by Minnesota Statutes § 211A.05, subd. 1. Pamela Gackstetter is the City Clerk for the City of Apple Valley. The Complaint alleges that on November 15, 2006, Ms. Gackstetter mailed a letter to Mr. Huston notifying him that he had failed to file the campaign financial report certification of filing that was due November 14, 2006. To date, the City has not received the certification of filing from Mr. Huston.

¹ Minn. Stat. § 211A.01, subd. 7, defines “filing officer” to mean the officer authorized by law to accept affidavits of candidacy or nominating petitions for an office or the officer authorized by law to place a ballot question on the ballot.

Because Mr. Huston has not filed the campaign financial report certification of filing that was due November 14, 2006, the Complaint states a prima facie violation of Minnesota Statutes § 211A.05, subd. 1. Pursuant to Minnesota Statutes § 211B.33, subd. 2(d), this matter shall be set on for an evidentiary hearing before a panel of three administrative law judges.
