

2024-2025 Assignment Licensure Table

The Assignment Licensure table is organized numerically by assignment code. The purpose of this table is to assist in determining the license an educator needs to fill an assignment. This table also provides a description of assignment as it is listed in the STAR manual.

Current licensure fields are a larger font size and in bold print. New to 2024-2025 changes are in bolded purple. When completing Tier 1 and Tier 2 licenses or Out-of-Field Permissions, districts should use the current licensure field areas only.

Important Terminology

Administrative License. In Minnesota there are four administrative licenses: superintendent, principal, special education director, and community education director. This table also contains legacy administrative licenses. Administrative licenses fall under the authority of Board of School Administrators (BOSA) but are processed through the licensing executives of Professional Educator Licensing and Standards Board (PELSB). The rules regarding administrative personnel can be found in Chapter 3512 rules.

Assignments. All assignments must be within the scope and content of license. This means educators can only work within the grade levels listed on the individual's license within the content area listed. For example, a teacher holding 150000 Social Studies with scope of 5-8 can only teach social studies courses for students in grades 5-8. If a teacher holds a 03200 Life Science with scope of 9-12, they can teach life science and biology classes in high school. This person would need to obtain a permission to teach science to students in grades 5-8.

CTE License. A teacher must hold a Career and Technical Education (CTE) license to provide instruction in for programs receiving CTE funding. These are teacher licenses, and their rules can be found under Chapter 8710 rules: Teachers of Career and Technical Education 8710.8010 – 8710.8080.

Current License. Current licensure field that can be issued with a new license or a permission.

Legacy License. A licensure field that cannot be issued with a new license or permission and can only be renewed.

Permission. A permission given to a district allowing a teacher to work in an assignment outside of the scope or content of their license. If an assignment falls within the content area of an educator's license, but not within the grade level, a permission is required. If an assignment falls within the grade level of the license, but not the content area, a permission is required. There are two types of permissions: Out-of-Field Permission (OFFP) and Cross-Curricular Delivery Permission (CCDP).

Related Services License. In Minnesota, an individual must hold a related services license to serve as a Speech-Language Pathologist, School Nurse, School Psychologist, School Social Worker, and School Counselor. These rules can be found under Chapter 8710 rules: Other School Professionals 8710.5900 – 8710.6400.

Scope of License. The teacher is authorized to teach only within the grade levels or age spans listed on the individual’s license.

Teacher License. A license allowing an individual to be Teacher of Record. Teacher licensure rules can be found under Chapter 8710 rules: Teacher Standards 8710.3000 – 8710.5850.

Teacher of Record. The Teacher of Record is an individual responsible for the planning, instruction, and assessment of students in a classroom and authorized to grant credit (Minnesota Administrative Rules 8710.0310).

Vocational License. Legacy licensure field that focuses on career and technical education.

990900	Dean of Students	Any educator license	An individual working as a Dean of Students may monitor student attendance, handle day-to-day discipline functions, direct student activities, serve as athletic director, oversee extra-curricular activities, serve as a school representative at regional and state events, coordinate testing, assist administration and counseling staff with enrollment of new students, scheduling, and transcript preparation. A dean of students may serve as an active member of child study teams, crisis response teams, and student assistance teams when designated by the school administrator. A dean of students may also contact parents, arrange and attend parent-teacher conferences, coordinate with administration or counseling staff for postsecondary opportunities and scholarships. A dean of students may NOT serve as the licensed administrator and/or licensed administrator designee for student’s Special Education IEP meetings. If a dean of students is suspending students or performing staff evaluations other than peer reviews of staff (summative or job retention-related evaluations, for example), the individual must be a licensed administrator. If the assignment is more representative of those duties of a principal or counselor, the individual must be appropriately licensed in those areas. In these cases, please use the appropriate assignment code to report.
