

Verification of Minnesota Teaching License

License Verification or “Letters of Good Standing”

Immediate official verification for state officials of your educator license is available from the Minnesota Professional Educator Licensing and Standards Board (PELSB) online website. It will be more efficient for the state officials to look up your license at this official site, or for you to print out a copy and submit the license when requested.

If you need a “Letter of Good Standing” regarding conduct or verification through another format (e.g., a form or statement), you can email the request to verificationletters.pelsb@state.mn.us, or if an original signature is required, mail the form or request (with your Minnesota File Folder Number included) to:

PELSB
1021 Bandana Blvd East
Suite 222
Saint Paul, MN 55108

Forms and letters are completed and mailed monthly; allow for sufficient time to process and complete your request. To check on the progress of the form or letter or to have additional information added to your request, please email verificationletters.pelsb@state.mn.us.

Please be aware that Professional Educator Licensing and Standards Board is not able to provide verification of any information for teacher exams (i.e., scores, passing information, dates completed, etc.) since we do not retain this information.

Speech-Language Pathologists and School Psychologists

If you need a verification of licensure, have a form to be completed, or a “Letter of Good Standing” regarding conduct, you can email the request to verificationletters.pelsb@state.mn.us or if an original signature is required, mail the form or request (with your Minnesota File Folder Number included) to:

PELSB
1021 Bandana Blvd. East
Suite 222
Saint Paul, MN 55108

Verification forms and letters are completed and mailed monthly; allow for sufficient time to process and complete your request. Also, we cannot provide licensure verification if your license application is in process and the license has not yet been issued.

If you need to check on the progress of the form or letter or have additional information to add to your request, please email PELSB at the above email.
