The Minnesota Board of Peace Officer Standards and Training (POST) is pleased to provide our Biennial Report for Fiscal Years 2025-2026 as required by Minnesota Statute § 214.07, subd. 1, sections (a) – (p).

The Board has continued taking proactive action to address needed improvements identified in the 2020 IADLEST audit and by POST stakeholders. This past biennium, POST focused on updating all legislatively mandated model policies and rulemaking to address preservice education. The Board is also upgrading its E-licensing and records management system.

I am proud of our staff and their dedication. They work diligently to address day-to-day operations while looking to the future and our collective vision to make POST an effective and efficient organization. Moving forward into the next biennium, POST – in collaboration with its partners and stakeholders – will continue to do its part to address the needs and challenges of the policing profession in Minnesota.

Should you need any additional information or have questions concerning the information contained in this report, please contact me.

Sincerely,

Board Introduction

History and Mission

History

In 1967, the legislature began regulating law enforcement by creating the Minnesota Peace Officer Training Board (MPOTB). The Board's main responsibility was to certify agencies offering police academy training in hopes that police training would become standardized across the state.

In 1977, several amendments were made to the original legislation. These amendments abolished the MPOTB and established the Minnesota Board of Peace Officer Standards and Training (POST).

The mission of the POST Board was to create the first law enforcement occupational licensing system in the United States. The system established licensing and training requirements and set standards for law enforcement agencies and officers. Today, the Board continues to develop, maintain and enforce standards for selection, education, licensing and officer conduct.

Mission

The POST Board advances the professionalism of Minnesota's peace officers by adopting and regulating education, selection, licensing and training standards.

POST licenses and regulates almost 11,000 (active and inactive) peace officers, 21 active part-time peace officers and 396 state, county and local law enforcement agencies. POST also certifies colleges and universities throughout the state that provide professional peace officer education programs.

Like other state regulatory agencies, the Board implements policies and procedures enacted by the legislature. The Board and its committees strive to develop practices that clarify statutory requirements that impact peace officers, law enforcement agencies, higher education providers and students. POST's philosophy is to serve as a resource and partner with stakeholders to ensure compliance with state policies and training mandates.

Membership

Per Minn. Stat. 626.841, the Governor appoints 17 members to the Board for staggered four-year terms and names the chairperson. Statute dictates that the membership shall be comprised of the following:

- two members from among county sheriffs in Minnesota,
- four members from among peace officers in Minnesota municipalities, at least two of whom shall be chiefs of police,
- two members from among peace officers, at least one of whom shall be a member of the Minnesota State Patrol Association,
- the Superintendent of the Minnesota Bureau of Criminal Apprehension or a designee,
- two members from among peace officers, or former peace officers, who are currently employed on a full-time basis in a professional peace officer education program,
- one member from among administrators of Minnesota colleges or universities that offer professional peace officer education,
- one member from among the elected city officials in statutory or home rule charter cities of under 5,000 population outside the metropolitan area, and
- four members from among the general public.

Board and Committees

The POST Board establishes and maintains the policies and procedures necessary to fulfill its mission. The Board responds to its members' constituencies as well as the governor's office, legislature, other state agencies, law enforcement-related professional organizations, stakeholders and community groups.

The full Board meets minimally four times per year. In addition, committees of the Board meet as needed and are called by the committee's chairperson. The committees are subordinate to the Board and must report their recommendations to the Board for authority to act. For the full Board and all committees, a majority vote by members present and voting is needed to take action.

Board

- The chair is a Board member appointed by the governor. In the absence of the chair, the vice-chair serves. The vice-chair is elected for a twelve-month term by the entire Board with a majority vote at the first meeting after new Board members are appointed each year. A majority vote by Board members, present and voting, is required before any Board or committee action takes place.

- Members are expected to have a working knowledge of state government, the Board's scope and mission, administrative rules, the Board's bylaws, and rules of the organization.

Executive Committee

- The Executive Committee consists of the Board chair, vice-chair and four other members. The Executive Committee advises and assists the Board's administrative staff.
- The purpose of the Executive Committee is to act on matters that require immediate action, except when such action might affect or modify existing Board policies and procedures.

Standards Committee

- The Standards Committee is comprised of seven members including the committee chair and vice-chair.
- The purpose of the Standards Committee is to review and make recommendations relating to minimum selection standards and standards of conduct for peace officers.

Training Committee

- The Training Committee has seven members including the committee chair and vice chair.
- The purpose of the Training Committee is to review and make recommendations to the Board on the certification of post-secondary law enforcement programs in Minnesota, licensing exams and the continuing education of peace officers.

Complaint Committee

- The Complaint Committee consists of four Board members, three of whom must be peace officers and one public member. All four members must be present for a quorum.
- The purpose of the Complaint Committee is to regulate the management and processing of complaints relative to allegations of administrative rule violations by chief law enforcement officers and for any alleged violation of the standards of conduct for licensed peace officers as defined in Minn. R. 6700.1600.

Special Committees

- The Board chair may create and empower special committees consisting of at least three members.

Board Activities

Biennial Highlights

- The Board completed an update of all 16 legislatively mandated model policies.
 - The domestic abuse response and arrest policy underwent the most significant and comprehensive update due to the statutory changes made to domestic violence statutes and the concerns expressed by the legislature. The board convened a working group of subject matter experts, advocates and law enforcement professionals who completed the policy update in January of 2025. The current version of the policy was approved by the board in April of 2026.
- During the 2024 legislative session, the legislature passed a bill that required the board to establish minimum training requirements (learning objectives) for school resource officers and to develop a school resource officer model policy. The approved learning objectives were created and disseminated to training providers in early 2025 while the final version of the mandated model policy was approved by the board in October of 2025.
- The board has engaged in several years of discussion with numerous stakeholders regarding standardization of preservice peace officer training in Minnesota. The purpose of the discussion revolved around improving the consistency and quality of preservice training across all preservice training providers. In July of 2025, the board approved an initiative to standardize categories three and four of the preservice learning objectives, also known as the “psychomotor skills” component of preservice training.
 - The board signed a joint powers agreement (JPA) with the University of Kansas Center for Certification and Competency Based Education (C3Be) to standardize content, develop benchmark assessments and develop a curriculum map to be followed and implemented by all peace officer preservice education schools. The work is expected to be completed in late 2027 in conjunction with the completion of rulemaking project R4750. The rulemaking project will codify Minnesota’s bifurcated training system, simplify language, remove obsolete provisions and expand the rules where necessary.
- Later in FY2026, the Board began a solicitation for a contract with a MNIT approved IT vendor to rebuild the Board’s instance of Salesforce that has been in place since 2015. Other than specific enhancements made due to business and statutory requirements, the basic foundational programming that was configured in 2015 has not been changed and is antiquated. Salesforce is the underlying application for all the Board’s business processes including E-licensing.
- In addition, the Board:
 - Awarded 1,405 new peace officer licenses;
 - Administered 144 reciprocity examinations, of which 35 were military reciprocity examinations;

- Renewed 7,320 peace officer and part-time peace officer licenses;
- Recorded 2,584 pointer system background entries;
- Handled 672 allegations of misconduct;
- Took disciplinary action in 78 cases; and
- Conducted 266 on-site law enforcement agency compliance reviews.

Rulemaking

Beginning in FY 2024, POST began a rulemaking project (R4750) to amend its rules within chapter 6700. This rulemaking project focuses on rule parts regarding preservice education, licensing examinations, reciprocity, and the investigation and resolution of misconduct allegations. These rule sections have not been comprehensively reviewed, in some cases, for decades. The goal of this rulemaking project is to codify Minnesota's bifurcated training system, standardize psychomotor skills training, simplify language, remove obsolete language, and expand the rules where necessary. There have been two publications posted in the State Register. The first Request for Comments was published on Monday, December 4, 2023, in Volume 48, Number 23 on pages 530-531. The second Request for Comments was published on Monday, February 23, 2026, in Volume 50, Number 34 on pages 853-854. This project is expected to be completed by the end of FY27. The rule parts affected by the Board's rulemaking project are:

- part 6700.0100 Definitions,
- part 6700.0300 Professional Peace Officer Education,
- part 6700.0400 Certification of Schools,

Source: Biennial Budget System

Dedicated Receipts - POST receives appropriations to reimburse law enforcement agencies to help defray their peace officer training costs. Continuing education is essential for law enforcement to learn the skills necessary to ensure public safety.

Philando Castile Memorial Training Fund:

Since FY2018, when additional mandates for continuing education training were put in place by the Legislature, an additional six million dollars each fiscal year has been appropriated for training reimbursement.

The 2005 Omnibus Public Safety bill included a dedicated fee to reimburse to local units of government for continuing education training of peace officers. The $20 fee is paid for the reinstatement of a driver's license in two non-DWI related instances – suspension for failure to appear and suspension for unpaid fines. This amounts to a base of $2,949,000 per fiscal year that is also sent to law enforcement agencies for their training expenses.

Each fiscal year, POST disburses the full amount of these training funds to local and county law enforcement agencies for training. Agencies are only reimbursed the actual amount that was spent on training, with the total amount capped based on the number of active officers that received the training.

Website-related Information

The POST Board's website is an essential resource for a wide range of users, including prospective peace officers, students in professional peace officer education programs, currently licensed officers, and members of the public.

Recent enhancements to the website have significantly expanded its functionality. Notably, the new Public Search Database has been introduced, allowing users to access detailed public information about peace officers online. This upgrade aims to promote transparency and accountability within the law enforcement community.

For more details and to explore the updated features, including the new database, please visit the POST Board website at: www.mn.gov/post.

Board Functions

Licensed Peace Officers and Part-time Peace Officers

In Minnesota there are two types of licenses: peace officer and part-time peace officer. A licensed peace officer must possess a postsecondary degree from a regionally accredited college or university and successfully complete a board-certified peace officer education program. A part-time licensed peace officer must complete an 80-hour educational curriculum, be supervised by a licensed peace officer, and work no more than 1,040 hours annually.

There are two main status categories for both types of licenses: active and inactive. A peace officer's license is active if they are employed by a law enforcement agency. An inactive license indicates the peace officer is not currently employed by a law enforcement agency.

On June 30, 2014, the Minnesota Legislature cancelled the issuance of new part-time peace officer licenses. The Legislature also cancelled the part-time peace officer licenses of those in inactive status. License holders who were active prior to June 30, 2014, continue to hold their licenses, and may continue until such time as they leave their primary agency. Once they are no longer employed by their primary law enforcement agency, their part-time license will be cancelled.

A total of 11,946 peace officers were licensed in Minnesota as of June 30, 2026. Of the licensed peace officers, there were a total of 10,993 active and 953 inactive. The number of active part-time licensed peace officers included in the total was 21.

Licensing Examinations

The Board's rules require that candidates for peace officer licensure meet minimum educational requirements, job related-physical and psychological standards, and minimum selection standards including no convictions for certain criminal offenses. The rules also require candidates to pass a written examination to be eligible for licensure. The POST Board administers two types of exams: the peace officer licensing examination and the reciprocity examination. Upon passing the appropriate examination, candidates become license eligible for three years. A peace officer license is issued when a license-eligible candidate is hired as a peace officer by a law enforcement agency.

Peace Officer Licensing Examination

The peace officer licensing examination is administered to:

- candidates who have successfully completed a professional peace officer education program,
- former license eligible candidates seeking to reinstate their eligibility, and
- former Minnesota peace officers seeking to restore their expired license.

Reciprocity Examinations

The reciprocity examination is administered to individuals who:

- are certified peace officers in another state or federal jurisdiction, and have either 3 years of experience and a postsecondary degree, or 5 years of experience; or
- have military experience in a law enforcement occupational specialty (two years of experience with a college degree, four years of experience without a college degree).

Eligibility is based on a combination of basic police training, experience and education.

Administration of the Exams

All of Minnesota's peace officer licensing exams are administered by a professional examination vendor using computer-based testing (CBT). CBT allows exam applicants to choose from a variety of exam dates, times and locations including ten sites located throughout Minnesota and hundreds of sites in other states and U.S. territories. The Board's current examination administrator is Talogy.

Talogy exam sites in Minnesota are located in Brainerd, Duluth, Moorhead, Rochester, St. Cloud, and 5 sites in the Twin Cities metropolitan area. The company can also administer Minnesota's licensing exams at over 700 sites in 47 other states, and three sites in Canada and a few in some U.S. Territories.

Reciprocity Examination Applicants By State

To be approved to take the reciprocity examination, applicants must possess qualifying law enforcement education and experience in another U.S. state or federal law enforcement agency, or with the U.S. military in a military law enforcement occupational specialty (see military reciprocity). MN Rules 6700.0501, and MN Stat. 626.8517, establish specific rules for reciprocity qualifications.

This table indicates the states where reciprocity candidates received peace officer experience prior to applying to take the reciprocity test. Some applicants already had a Minnesota address at the time they applied to take the reciprocity exam

Licenses Issued During Biennium

Unlike other licensing boards, the POST Board does not issue licenses immediately to individuals who pass the Board's examinations. Instead, after passing the examination, these individuals are considered "eligible to be licensed". The license certificate is issued when a law enforcement agency notifies the Board that it has hired an individual who is eligible and that the individual has met all of the selection standards prescribed in POST Board's rules.

The following table illustrates the number of individuals issued a peace officer license by gender and age as distinguished in the testing application data.

Professional Peace Officer Education (PPOE)

Peace officers educated in Minnesota must possess a postsecondary degree from a regionally accredited college or university. The education required for peace officer license eligibility is offered through Minnesota POST Board-certified colleges and universities. This system of education reflects Minnesota's commitment to highly educated, professional peace officers.

Minnesota's Professional Peace Officer Education Schools

- The POST Board certifies twenty-nine colleges and universities in Minnesota to provide the professional education necessary to prepare students for a career in policing. Successful completion of a Professional Peace Officer Education (PPOE) program at one of these schools is required for eligibility to take the Board's Peace Officer License Examination. School certification is based on standards and requirements set forth in Chapter 6700, approved by the board, and monitored by staff.
- Ten POST-certified schools provide the psychomotor skills components that require special equipment and facilities, i.e., weapons training and emergency vehicle operations. The other school's contract with these providers for this portion of the program.

The Professional Peace Officer Education (PPOE) Learning Objectives

- Minnesota's professional peace officer education is based on board-approved Learning Objectives for Professional Peace Officer Education. Rooted in the findings of peace officer job task analyses, the objectives were developed in the late 1970's but have undergone many revisions over the years. These objectives are not only the foundation for peace officer education, but also form the basis for the Board's peace officer licensing examination.
- The PPOE learning objectives strive to ensure students receive basic education and training in the knowledge, skills, and abilities necessary for entry level peace officer employment. They also seek to support the development of the attitudes and character traits that support a successful peace officer career.
- During the previous biennium, the POST Board conducted a review and adjustment of the Learning Objectives. The review effort aided in eliminating obsolete job task language and updating or adding new language to reflect changes in practice, technology, and law. This information is being used to update peace officer licensing examinations. These revised objectives went into effect in May of 2026.

Renewal of Certification of PPOE Programs

- Regular re-evaluation of peace officer education programs is essential. Chapter 6700 requires POST-certified schools to apply to the Board for renewal every five years. For the renewal period 2025 to 2030, the POST Board conducted in-depth electronic evaluations and on-site reviews of the professional peace officer education programs provided at 29 board-certified colleges and universities. The evaluations assessed the programs to ensure that all requirements of Chapter 6700 are being met. The recertification evaluation of PPOE programs includes a review of:
 - program operating standards from admission through graduation,
 - policies for prohibiting discrimination and ensuring student safety,
 - all inter-school agreements related to the provision of peace officer education
 - PPOE curriculum and educators to ensure that the education provided aligns with the POST-required Learning Objectives for Professional Peace Officer Education, and
 - A site inspection of all colleges and universities.
- In January 2026, the Board reviewed all PPOE renewal material and approved all 29 colleges and universities for the coming renewal period.

Pre-service Standardization Project

- The purpose of the standardization project is to modernize and standardize POST's pre-service program focusing on the psychomotor skills components. The project will align and integrate practical skills with the academic portions to ensure consistent training outcomes across all 29 college and university programs but specifically psychomotor skills.
- The project seeks to create a uniform, effective training model and assessments that reflect the evolving landscape of law enforcement and supports diverse candidate pathways. It does this by addressing the current inconsistencies and incorporating recommendations from the 2020 IADLEST audit, national best practices and POST focus groups.
- The project is slated for completion in late 2027, and implementation in 2029.

Professional Peace Officer Education

Continuing Education

Every licensed peace officer and part-time peace officer must complete a minimum of forty-eight hours of continuing education (CE) credits within each officer's three-year licensing period to maintain and renew their license. Active peace officers and part-time peace officers must complete use of force/firearms training every year and an eight-hour course in emergency vehicle operations and police pursuit every five years.

On November 7, 2024, the Minnesota POST Board approved learning objectives for CE training for School Resource Officers as required by Minn. Stat. 626.8482.

On August 1, 2025, the Minnesota POST Board launched the Continuing Education Portal to streamline continuing education processes utilized by POST and CE Sponsors. The portal allows sponsors to submit course approval applications and affidavits of attendance online. The portal also allows agencies to submit their reimbursement application online.

It is the agency's discretion which law enforcement related courses they complete to satisfy the remainder of the required forty-eight hours. Inactive peace officers are not required to complete mandated training; however, they are required to have forty-eight hours of law enforcement training within their three-year licensing period.

To gain POST-approval for continuing education courses, sponsors submit an application outlining the course content and provide instructor qualifications. To be approved for continuing education training credit, the course must be law enforcement-related, promote professional peace officer competence, and be related to the knowledge, skills and abilities necessary to perform peace officer duties.

After a course is approved, it may be advertised on the POST Board's website if the sponsor requests it. The approved course list is updated weekly and divided into nine regions (reference the adjacent map) across the state for ease of locating training in a specific area.

Continuing Education Hours

The table below reflects continuing education training hours reported to the Minnesota POST Board by peace officers during fiscal years 2025 and 2026. Reported hours include training across a range of professional-development and Board-required subject areas.

Continuing Education Expenditures

To qualify for reimbursement, law enforcement agencies must submit their continuing education expenses to the POST Board. Agencies are required to list their actual costs, although reimbursement is limited to no more than the per-peace officer share of the amount expended on training.

The categories of eligible continuing education expenditures are: course costs, peace officer salary while in training, lodging and meals per diem, transportation to and from courses, fees paid to the training organization(s), and other costs including facility rental(s) and training vehicle maintenance. The costs do not include: expenses paid for by peace officers themselves, membership dues to training associations, training officer or support staff salaries, or expenditures from state agencies.

Continuing Education Reimbursement

Each year, the POST Board reimburses law enforcement agencies for a portion of eligible continuing education expenses. The reimbursement rate is calculated by dividing the amount appropriated by the Legislature by the total number of eligible peace officers reported by participating agencies.

An agency may request reimbursement for eligible training expenses when a peace officer has been employed by that agency for at least eight months. To receive reimbursement, agencies must submit an application identifying their continuing education expenditures and all peace officers eligible for reimbursement.

During the latest reporting period, the POST Board transitioned the reimbursement application process from a paper/PDF-based submission to an electronic process through the agency's E-licensing dashboard. This change streamlines application submission, improves the accuracy and consistency of reported information, and reduces administrative processing for both agencies and the Board.

The reimbursement amount per eligible peace officer varies annually based on the legislative appropriation and the total number of eligible peace officers submitted by agencies for reimbursement. State agencies are not eligible for reimbursement.

License Sanctions

The POST Board has disciplinary jurisdiction under Minn. R. 6700.1600 when a peace officer has engaged in certain conduct. The Board also has licensing jurisdiction when a chief law enforcement officer fails to implement a mandated policy, provide mandated training, or follow a Board directive.

Based on legislation passed in 1995, a peace officer's license is automatically revoked if the officer is convicted of a felony. Convictions include a finding of guilt, whether or not the adjudication of guilt is stayed or executed, an admission of guilt, or a no contest plea. The Board's Complaint Committee procedure provides due process for licensees, as described in Minn. Stat. 214.

Effective June 1, 2023, the Standards of Conduct for licensed peace officers set forth in Minn. R. 6700.1600 were significantly changed, giving the Board broader jurisdiction to impose disciplinary action.

According to Minn. R. 6700.1610, conduct which could be grounds for disciplinary action, must be reported by the licensee. Changes made to Minn. Stat. 626.8457 also require chief law enforcement officers to report such conduct to the Board.

It is mandatory for all law enforcement agencies to adopt policies and procedures for the investigation of allegations of misconduct against their licensed peace officers. The Board updated its Allegations of Misconduct Model Policy on July 24, 2025.

The POST Board's full complaint process and related forms can be found on the Board's website, <https://mn.gov/post/>.

In FY 2025 and 2026, the POST Board reviewed a total of 672 allegations of misconduct. In FY 2025 and 2026, the POST Board issued disciplinary action in 78 cases. All misconduct reports received by POST, other than automatic revocations for felony convictions, are reviewed by the four-member Complaint Committee.

Agency Compliance Reviews

In addition to annual compliance forms, POST Standards Coordinators conduct on-site compliance reviews of law enforcement agencies. Standards Coordinators visit each agency once every three to five years. In addition, Standards Coordinators have the discretion to review law enforcement agencies at the request of the agency or in response to complaints. During the 2025-2026 biennium, 266 compliance reviews were completed.
