Revenue generated from the sale of School Trust construction aggregates are credited to the Permanent School Fund. Interest and dividends from this fund are transferred to all school districts of the state. The MN DNR has a fiduciary responsibility to sell School Trust aggregate using sound natural resource practices.

For more information, contact Corrie.Floyd@state.mn.us or visit: http://dnr.state.mn.us/aboutdnr/school_lands/index.html

MN DNR EARTH MATERIALS LEASES ON SCHOOL LANDS

Active State Earth Materials Lease Sites on School Trust Lands

32 School Trust sites are currently leased for extraction of construction aggregates. (Data as of April 2016).

Previous State Earth Materials Lease Sites on School Trust Lands

164 sites have a history of construction aggregate extraction and/or leasing and may be available for lease. Some sites may also be eligible over-the-counter for short-term projects such as a road job. Interested parties should contact MN DNR for site availability. (Data as of April 2016).

School Trust Lands - School, Indemnity, Swamp, and Internal Improvement (Surface Ownership)

The School Trust ownership boundaries displayed on this map are an approximation at this map scale. (Data as of April 2016).