Offenders Sentenced for Aiding an Offender, Accomplice After the Fact: 2001-2014

Figure 1 displays the number of offenders who were sentenced between 2001 and 2014, with “Aiding an Offender, Accomplice after the Fact” under Minn. Stat. § 609.495, subd. 3, as the most serious offense sentenced.¹ The penalty for this offense is dependent on the crime the offender is alleged to have aided. According to the statute, the accomplice may be sentenced to not more than one-half of the statutory maximum sentence that could be imposed on the principal offender for the crime of violence listed under Minn. Stat. § 609.11, subd. 9. This is an unranked offense, and the sentencing court must assign a severity level prior to pronouncing the sentence. There were 22 cases sentenced under this statute in 2014. There have been, on average, 23 cases per year since 2001 (Figure 1).

Table 1 lists detailed case-level information for aiding an offender, accomplice after the fact offenders. However, details of the underlying offense are unknown. Therefore, district court case numbers have been provided for reference if a person wished to request more information from the court. A “0” in the column labeled “Pronounced Confinement” indicates the offender received a stay of imposition.
