

Sentencing Worksheets 101

Winter Series #1 – December 16, 2025

Sentence Guidelines Policies Effective Date

Guidelines used for the “current” offense

- Each year on August 1st, a Sentencing Guidelines manual is published for offenses committed on or after that date.
- Each Sentencing Guidelines manual remains in effect through July 31st of the following year.
- That means that technically, the idea of “the current Guidelines” is not based on the calendar date; rather, it is based on the date the current conviction offense occurred.
- These are the policies that will be used to find everything related to the current offense including the severity level, modifiers or mandatory minimums, and the Grid used to find the presumptive sentence.

Guidelines used for the “current” offense

- The changes made to criminal history calculation policies that were enacted in 2019 will now apply to all offenses regardless of their offense date.
- If the current offense occurred on or before 7/31/2019, used the 2019 Sentencing Guidelines manual.
- If the offense occurred on or after 8/1/2019, use the manual in effect based on the date the offense occurred.
 - 05/01/1980-07/31/2020 – the 2019 manual
 - 08/01/2020-09/14/2021 – the 2020 manual
 - 09/15/2021-07/31/2022 – the 2021 manual
 - 08/01/2022-07/31/2023 – the 2022 manual
 - 08/01/2023-07/31/2024 – the 2023 manual
 - 08/01/2024-07/31/2025 – the 2024 manual
 - 08/01/2025-07/31/2025 – the 2025 manual

Previous Years Guidelines and Commentary

The presumptive sentence for any offender convicted of a felony committed on or after May 1, 1980, is determined by the Sentencing Guidelines in effect on the date of the conviction offense. If multiple offenses are an element of the conviction offense, the date of the conviction offense must be determined by the fact finder. If offenses have been aggregated, the date of the earliest offense should be used as the date of the conviction offense. The majority of previous Guidelines have an effective date starting August 1st, and are in effect until the next publication. The effective date can be found on the cover page of every previous Guidelines.

2024 Sentencing Guidelines

The Minnesota Sentencing Guidelines are a set of rules and principles used to determine sentences for felony offenses in Minnesota. They aim to promote fairness and consistency in sentencing by considering both the seriousness of the offense and the offender's criminal history. The guidelines are advisory, meaning judges can deviate from them, but must explain their reasoning for doing so.

2024 Amendments

MSGC periodically amends the sentencing guidelines to ensure they remain relevant, fair, and effective in addressing criminal behavior and promoting public safety. These modifications can involve Legislative amendments to crime laws affecting the guidelines, technical amendments, and changes to the presumptive sentence for various crimes. The MSGC's overarching goal is to reduce sentencing disparities, ensure sanctions are proportional to the offense and offender's history, and maintain public safety.

Change in sentence durations under Minn. Stat. § 609.02

OFFENSES SENTENCED BEFORE 7/1/2023

- ✓ Felony = 366 days, or 12 months and 1 day minimum
- ✓ Gross misd = 91 to 365 days (12 months maximum)
- ✓ Misdemeanor = not more than 90 days

OFFENSES SENTENCED ON/AFTER 7/1/2023

- ✓ Felony = 365 days, or 12 months minimum
- ✓ Gross misd = 91 to 364 days
- ✓ Misdemeanor = not more than 90 days

These changes to the statute apply only to MN offenses. The Guidelines still require that non-MN priors receive a 366 days minimum for felonies, making 365 days a gross misd.

Are you sure?

You have selected an offense for which conditional release may apply. Conditional release is a statutorily required term of extended supervision that is applicable to certain offenses such as DWI and criminal sexual conduct. This additional term of supervision begins when the offender completes the term of imprisonment. Conditional release should be pronounced at sentencing but is only imposed on executed prison sentences. Consult the applicable Minnesota statute

A Conditional Release Period is assigned to certain offenses, specifically, offenses from the Sex Offender Grid and Felony DWI among others.

- For DWI, the 5-year Conditional Release Period will populate automatically and cannot be changed or removed.
- For other offenses, especially CSC offenses, it must be added manually:
 - 8/1/1992 – 7/31/2005 – Five years for the first offense; 10 years for subsequent offenses (subsequent must have a true prior, convicted before the commission of the current offense);
 - 8/1/2005 to present: 10 years for the first offense; Lifetime for subsequent offenses; a prior used in criminal history will make the current term Lifetime under Minn. Stat. § 609.3455, subd. 7.
- If the offense is an attempt, Conditional Release does not apply.

- Include MN and eligible non-MN priors that received a felony sentence, a felony Stay of Imposition, or an EJJ conviction.
- If the prior offense is a Federal offense with no MN equivalent, select Federal for the Jurisdiction and the No Equivalent box to deactivate the Severity Level. This will default to 1 point per the policy.

Criminal History: Felony Priors – Decay period

The questions posed for the felony prior will affect both the decay period and the custody point value.

- “Did this prior result in a prison term” is based on the status of that prior’s sentence when the current offense occurred.
 - Check ‘Yes’ if the original disposition was prison, or if the stayed sentence was revoked to prison.
 - The decay will be 15 years from the Expiration Date to the date the current offense occurred.
 - Check ‘No’ if the original disposition was, and remained, a stayed sentence.
 - If revocation remained a stay – e.g., stay of imp to stay of ex – use the date of the original sentence.
 - If a Stay of Adjudication is revoked to a stay or imp or a stay of ex, use the date of that disposition, the first imposed sentence.
 - The decay will be 15 years from the Disposition Date to the date the current offense occurred.
- “Was the offender under eligible custody status for the offense on [offense date]” should be answered if a custody value was added (this question will not appear if there is no custody value). Felonies still under custody will not decay.

Custody Status Ineligibility Questions

Is this offense (or its Minnesota equivalent, for non-Minnesota offenses), any of the following?

Check all that apply:

☒ Currently assigned a severity-level ranking in the Guidelines of 8–11, A–G, or D8–D9?

☒ A Severe Violent Offense?

☐ Fleeing Peace Officer (Great Bodily Harm) (Minn. Stat. § 609.487, subd. 4(b))?

- The “Custody Status Ineligibility Questions” determine if custody for the prior offense is eligible to be waived.
 - Waiver of custody is covered by 2.B.2.e of the Guidelines, and the decision to waive the custody lies with the court.
- If either the current offense, or the prior they are under custody for, is ineligible for waiver, it cannot be waived without departure.
- “Is this offense (or its Minnesota equivalent for non-Minnesota offense) any of the following?”:
 - The first question will auto-populate based on the severity level assigned to the prior: “Currently assigned a severity-level ranking in the Guidelines of 8–11, A–G [or A–H depending on the current offense date], or D8–D9?”
 - This is why is it important to use the severity level in effect when the current offense occurs. 2nd degree drug was a level 8, but as of 2016 it’s a D7. If the severity level is not updated, then that box will be checked incorrectly, and the defendant may not get the waiver consideration.
 - “A Severe Violent Offense” is for a prior from the Severe Violent Offense (SVO) list in section 8 of the Guidelines. It is a very specific list, so ensure you have the correct statute for the prior before checking that box.
 - “Fleeing Peace Officer (Great Bodily Harm) (Minn. Stat. § 609.487, subd 4(b))” is a severity level 6 offense that the commission added to the SVO list.

☐ Check to override custody status points to 1.0.

You assigned a Custody Status, but there was no prior(s) in which you indicate the offender was under eligible custody status. If this is correct, please add a comment indicating what offense custody status is for and continue. Otherwise, select the prior and answer "Yes" to the question "Was offender under eligible custody status?"

0.5 Custody Status Pt. not used to find presumptive sentence per 1/13/22 MSGC interim guidance.

- Statute and Severity Level information must be updated on the Offense page.
- Additional Statute(s) and Additional Comments can be added here.
- The Custody Status Point value will default to the highest level (either 0.5 or 1.0) based on the prior(s) selected.
 - Currently, the 0.5 custody value is not being added into the total criminal history score per the Commissions interim guidance.
- The Juvenile Points and M/GM Points will default to either 0 or 1 depending on the priors. While it can be changed, please check with MSGC first to ensure additional points are eligible.
- The felony points will automatically calculate and can only be changed when the information is changed on the Priors page.
- If the custody status selected is Release Pending Sentencing, Stay of Adjudication Custody, or Confined and the offense connected has not been sentenced yet, the option to Override the custody point to 1 point is an available on this screen.

This calculator is provided as a courtesy. The presumptive disposition and duration are calculated based on the severity level and criminal history score provided. Some sentencing scenarios may be missing as only the most common modifiers and mandatory minimums are part of the formula. Please verify the accuracy of the presumptive sentence. Contact MSGC if you have any questions about the application of the sentencing guidelines.

- The Calculated Presumptive Sentence will be based on the Severity Level and Total Criminal History Score from the appropriate cell on the applicable Grid.
- Do not use the Override button without first confirming that all applicable items such as modifier have been added correctly.
- If the court waives the custody status point value, do not remove the custody type. Instead, check the box on this page to recalculate the sentence. If the box is grayed out, that means that custody cannot be waived without departure.
- Two other check boxes – Departure Anticipated and Revoked EJJ – can be checked when applicable to print on the worksheet.
