4. Your income is not enough to pay for the common necessities of life for yourself and the people you support and also to pay court fees and costs.

If you believe you meet one of the categories above, you can apply to proceed In Forma Pauperis (the Latin title used to describe the procedure for waiver of court fees and costs).

STEP 1: Complete the Affidavit for Proceeding In Forma Pauperis. Sign the Affidavit for Proceeding In Forma Pauperis under penalty of perjury. This means you are stating that the information in the Affidavit is true to the best of your knowledge. Perjury is the crime of intentionally lying or misrepresenting the truth, punishable by jail or other sanctions. Make sure you attach copies of any documents requested on the form, such as proof of public assistance, etc.

STEP 2: Complete the case heading for the Order Denying / Granting In Forma Pauperis. The case heading (name of Plaintiff/Petitioner and Defendant/Respondent, etc.) should match your Affidavit for Proceeding In Forma Pauperis. The rest of the order can be left blank. The judge will decide whether to sign the section denying or granting the order based on the information you provide.

STEP 3: File these documents with the Court Administrator. The staff person will tell you the procedures for having a judge review your application.

If the judge grants your request to waive fees and/or costs, the order will only apply to the court case listed in the caption of the In Forma Pauperis (IFP) order. The IFP order will expire one year from the date of the order. The court may alter or amend the order at any time before expiration of the order. If the court action is not resolved before the expiration date of the IFP order and other fees or costs are required to be paid, you will need to fill out another In Forma Pauperis Application or Supplemental In Forma Pauperis Application.
