

August Erickson

Development Manager, Miles Partnership

August oversees their in-house digital accessibility team. August is a Certified Professional in Accessibility Core Competencies (CPACC), a challenging and internationally recognized certification program through the International Association of Accessibility Professionals. Only about 6,000 people worldwide have met the requirements to obtain this certification. August is highly passionate about providing the highest quality digital products that are inclusive.