Positive outlook for summer 2022 travel

Through a Summer Travel Plans Survey, Explore Minnesota found that in the next six months 89% intend to travel. People are increasingly ready to travel to destinations further across the U.S. with 72% planning to travel regionally and 56% with national travel plans. More than half of travelers (55%) plan to travel for at least a week this summer, usually via their personal vehicle (91%) or airplane (38%). Despite price increases, 41% indicated that gasoline cost will not impact their travel plans. Most (79%) will travel with members of their household and 15% will travel with a pet. Travelers will gather trip planning information in a variety of ways, with family and friend recommendations (71%) and travel guides (66%) and travel websites (65%) being the most frequently cited sources.

Minnesota travel plans key findings:

- Of those that plan to travel this summer, 91% of Minnesotan survey respondents and 76% of non-Minnesotan survey respondents plan to take leisure day only and/or overnight trips that include time in Minnesota. Of those traveling in Minnesota, 85% plan to take at least one overnight trip. Most overnight trips are planned for the warmest summer months. Hotels or motels are included in the plans of 65% and another 33% will stay at campgrounds.

- Travelers plan to spend time throughout Minnesota this summer. The NE region continues to be the most popular with 64% including it in their plans. Planned travel for central and southern Minnesota and the metro area is also strong with 39 and 40% saying that they will spend time in these regions.

- Minnesota travelers will engage in a variety of activities. Summer food and drink establishments plans show preferences for dine-in restaurants and establishments with patio seating options by 76 and 71%. Travelers plan to visit many events and attractions, with 44% planning to go to community or county events, fairs and festivals. Hiking is the most planned outdoor recreation activity, with 63% including it in trip plans.

- Of the 3% not planning to travel this summer, 27% cited higher gasoline prices as the most influential factor. Other personal budget pressures and time constraints are top reasons for not traveling to Minnesota.

Survey comments and conclusions

The Summer 2022 Traveler Survey found that people are eager to travel in Minnesota. Survey comments included positive and negative observations and suggestions for EMT.

- “September is Minnesota’s best kept secret.”
- “We love camping at MN state parks. Wish you would make it easier to place reservations on-line.... and keep campground fees down.”
- “More unusual day trip ideas besides parks, best farmers markets, flea markets and garage sales.”
- “The first place I go when planning on traveling is the Explore Minnesota website.”
- “I appreciate assistance from travel center folks and relied on maps and other guides.”
- “Very interested in LGBT travel within the state.”
- “Tell more about what types of fish are in different lakes.”
- “Maybe you could feature some trip ideas for elderly people that are limited in what they can do because of physical disability concerns.”
- “I support more electric charging sites in Minnesota.”
- “Would be nice to know trips for solo travelers, safety recommendations too.”
- “It would be wonderful if Explore Minnesota could propose or initiate a working partnership with the 12 American Indian Tribes in the state to develop a cultural and/or nature-based tourism program.”
- “It would be great if discount tickets were available for MN local travel for fairs, events etc. Love the emails with MN happenings, there is always something fun to do!”
Thank You
