TO: Directors, State Protection and Advocacy Agencies

SUBJECT: New Assurances Required From State Protection and Advocacy Agencies

LEGAL AND RELATED REFERENCES: Public Law 100-146, "The Developmental Disabilities Assistance and Bill of Rights Act of 1987

CONTENT: Public Law 100-146 was signed October 29, 1987. Among the new requirements were four provisions for the Protection and Advocacy System that require immediate State action.

This instruction provides guidance to States relative to the new requirements imposed in Section 142.

INSTRUCTION: States are advised that the new requirements referred to in this guidance are in effect as of October 1, 1987, and are as follows: States must submit new assurances listed below, in addition to those already required. These assurances must be signed by the Governor or other State official empowered to provide such assurances for the State and submitted to the appropriate Regional Office not later than March 15, 1988. (A Regional Office listing is attached for your information.) Third and fourth quarter formula grant awards will not be issued to any State which has not submitted a revised set of assurances.

Assurances to comply with the new requirements must be submitted as follows:

1. Log No. ADD-PI-88-1
2. Issuance Date: 1/5/88
3. Originating Office: Administration on Developmental Disabilities
4. Key Word: P&A Assurances
5. P.L. 100-146
o that the Protection and Advocacy System has the authority to investigate incidents of abuse and neglect of persons with developmental disabilities if the incidents are reported to the system or if there is probable cause to believe that the incidents occurred.

o that the Protection and Advocacy System will, on an annual basis, provide the public an opportunity to comment on priorities established by, and activities of, the system.

o that the Protection and Advocacy System will establish a grievance procedure for clients or prospective clients of the system to assure that persons with developmental disabilities have full access to services of the system.

o that the Protection & Advocacy System have access to all records of:

any person with developmental disabilities who is a client of the system if such person, or the legal guardian, conservator, or other legal representative of such person, has authorized the system to have such access; and any person with developmental disabilities who, by reason of the mental or physical condition of such person, is unable to authorize the system to have such access, who does not have a legal guardian, conservator, or other legal representative, or for whom the legal guardian is the State, and with respect to whom a complaint has been received by the system or with respect to whom there is probable cause to believe that such person has been subject to abuse and neglect.

States are required to submit assurances that the designated Protection and Advocacy System in the State is in compliance with these new provisions. Each State will therefore be required to submit a new set of assurances which include the new provisions of the Act as well as the requirements which remained unchanged.

The assurances described in this Program Instruction, supercede previous assurances required by the Developmental Disabilities Act of 1984. (See attached listing)

If these assurances are not received by March 15, 1988, we will assume that there is non-compliance with the Act and the State will be subject to disallowance of expenditures in Fiscal Year 1988.
